The Psalmist tells us today to wait in silence for God. This does not mean, do nothing, but rather it means that we should rid ourselves of all other distractions so that we can focus on the most important thing: God. By doing this we prepare ourselves for when we are called by the Spirit to play a part in God's mission.

LENTEN STUDY

Dean Phillip will be leading a Lenten study this year.

COMMENCEMENT:

Tuesday 20 FEBRUARY 2.30PM in Soldiers Chapel. It will run every Tuesday during Lent (finishing: 20 March)

LISTENING TO THE WISDOM OF THE DESERT is a modern Lenten program for group or personal study.

The theme from the first Sunday gospel of Lent, Jesus' 40 days in the desert.

Through five weeks we explore this theme using prayer, biblical reflection and modern stories.

Focus questions are:

*What is the desert in our own lives?
What can we learn from it?*

Please add your name to list in Narthex so booklets can be ordered. Cost $10

Opening Hymn

Jesus, where'er your people meet
there they behold your mercy seat, where'er they seek you, you are found
and every place is hallowed ground.

For you, within no walls confined,
are present in the humble mind;
such ever bring you where they come,
and, going, take you to their home.

Dear Shepherd of your chosen few,
your former mercies here renew;
here to our waiting hearts proclaim
the sweetness of your saving name.

Here may we prove the power of prayer
to strengthen faith and sweeten care,
to teach our faint desires to rise,
and bring all heaven before our eyes.

Lord, we are few, but you are near,
your arm can save, your ear can hear;
O rend the heavens, come quickly down,
and make a thousand hearts your own.

*William Cowper 1731-1800 alt.
TIS445*

Gradual Hymn

A charge to keep I have,
A God to glorify,
A never-dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky.

To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfil,
O may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will.

Arm me with jealous care,
As in thy sight to live;
And O, they servant, Lord, prepare
A good account to give.

Help me to watch and pray,
And on thyself rely;
And let me ne'er my trust be-
tray,
But press to realms on high.

*Charles Wesley 1707-88 alt.
A&MR328*

Offertory Hymn

I come with joy to meet my Lord,
forgiven, loved, and free,
in awe and wonder to recall
his life laid down for me.

I come with Christians far and near
to find, as all are fed,
the new community of love
in Christ's communion bread.

As Christ breaks bread and bids us share
each proud division ends.
The love that made us, makes us one,
and strangers now are friends.

And thus with joy we meet our Lord,
his presence, always near,
is in such friendship better known:
we see, and praise him here.

Together met, together bound,
we'll go our different ways,
and as his people in the world
we'll live and speak his praise.

Brian Arthur Wren 1936-TIS533tune223

Final Hymn

Forth in your name, O Lord, I go,
my daily labour to pursue,
you, Lord, alone resolved to know,
in all I think, or speak, or do.

Each task your wisdom has assigned still let me cheerfully fulfil,
in all my works your presence find,
and prove your good and perfect will.

You may I set at my right hand,
whose eyes my inmost substance view,
and labour on at your command,
and offer all my works to you.

Give me to bear your easy yoke,
and every moment watch and pray,
and still to things eternal look,
and hasten to your glorious day;

for you delightfully employ
all that your bounteous grace has given,
and run my course with even joy,
and closely walk with you to heaven.

*Charles Wesley 1707-88 alt.
TIS571*

Psalm 62. 5-12

For God alone my soul waits in silence,
for my hope is from him.
He alone is my rock and my salvation,
my fortress; I shall not be shaken.
On God rests my deliverance and my honour;
my mighty rock, my refuge is in God.

Trust in him at all times, O people;
pour out your heart before him;
God is a refuge for us.

Those of low estate are but a breath,
those of high estate are a delusion;
in the balances they go up;
they are together lighter than a breath.
Put no confidence in extortion,
and set no vain hopes on robbery;
if riches increase, do not set your heart on them.

Once God has spoken;
twice have I heard this:
that power belongs to God,
and steadfast love belongs to you, O Lord.
For you repay to all
according to their work.
