SENTENCE

Owe no one anything ,except to love one another;
for whoever loves another has fulfilled the law.

COLLECT

O God you know us to be set in the midst of so many and so great dangers that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright :
grant to us such strength and protection as many support us in all dangers and carry us through all temptations ; through Jesus Christ our lord .Amen

Introit Hymn

1 Awake, my soul, and with the sun your daily stage of duty run; shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise to pay your morning sacrifice.

2 Glory to you that safely kept and have refreshed me while I slept; grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake
I may of endless light partake.

3 Lord, I my vows to you renew; disperse my sins as morning dew;
guard my first springs of thought and will,
and with yourself my spirit fill.

4 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
all I design or do or say, that all my powers, with all their might,
in your sole glory may unite.

5 Praise God, from whom all blessings flow, praise God, all creatures here below, praise God above, you heavenly host, praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

A Reading from Exodus 12.1-14

LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household. If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbour in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats. You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight. They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs. You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn. This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the passover of the LORD. For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the LORD. The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

For the word of the Lord

Psalm 149

Lawes, Henry (1596-1662)

- ¹ O praise the Lord, and sing to the Lord a | new | song:
O praise him in the ass- | embly | of the | faithful.
- ² Let Israel rejoice in | him that | made him:
let the children of Zion be | joyful | in their | king.
- ³ Let them praise him | in the | dance:
let them sing his praise with | timbrel | and with | harp.
- ⁴ For the Lord takes delight | in his | people:
he adorns the | meek with | his sal- | vation.
- ⁵ Let his faithful ones exult | in his | glory:
let them sing for | joy up- | on their | beds.
- ⁶ Let the high praises of God be | in their | mouths:
and a two-edged | sword | in their | hands,
- ⁷ To execute vengeance | on the | nations:
and chas- | tisement . up- | on the | peoples,
- ⁸ To bind their | kings in | chains:
and their | nobles . with | fetters . of | iron,
- (2nd half) ⁹ To visit upon them the judgement that | is de- | creed:
such honour belongs to all his faithful | servants. |
Praise the | Lord.

Reading from Romans 13.1-10

Let every person be subject to the governing authorities; for there is no authority except from God, and those authorities that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore whoever resists authority resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgement. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Do you wish to have no fear of the authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive its approval; for it is God's servant for your good. But if you do what is wrong, you should be afraid, for the authority does not bear the sword in vain! It is the servant of God to execute wrath on the wrongdoer. Therefore one must be subject, not only because of wrath but also because of conscience. For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, busy with this very thing. Pay to all what is due to them—taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honour to whom honour is due.

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, 'You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet'; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, 'Love your neighbour as yourself.' Love does no wrong to a neighbour; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

For The Word of the Lord

Gradual Hymn

1 You servants of God, your Master proclaim,
and publish abroad
his wonderful name;
the name all-victorious
of Jesus extol:
his kingdom is glorious,
and rules over all.

2 God rules on high,
almighty to save;
and still he is nigh,
his presence we have;
the great congregation
his triumph shall sing, ascribing salvation
to Jesus our King.

3 Salvation to God,
who sits on the throne!
let all cry aloud,
and honour the Son:
the praises of Jesus
the angels proclaim,
fall down on their faces,
and worship the Lamb.

4 Then let us adore,
and give him his right,
all glory and power,
all wisdom and might,
and honour and blessing,
with angels above,
and thanks never-ceasing,
and infinite love.

The Gospel of St Matthew 18.10-20

'Take care that you do not despise one of these little ones; for, I tell you, in heaven their angels continually see the face of my Father in heaven. What do you think? If a shepherd has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray? And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray. So it is not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost.

If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax-collector. Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.'

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Communion Hymn

1 Christ, enthroned in heavenly splendour, first-begotten from the dead,
you alone our strong defender, lifting up your people's head:
alleluia, alleluia,
Jesus, true and living bread.

2 Here our humblest homage pay we,
here in loving reverence bow;
here for faith's discernment pray we,
lest we fail to know you now:
alleluia, alleluia,
you are here, we ask not how.

3 Though the lowliest form now veils you
as of old in Bethlehem, here as there your angels hail you,
branch and flower of Jesse's stem;
alleluia, alleluia,
we in worship join with them.

4 Paschal Lamb, your offering, finished once for all when you were slain, in its fullness undiminished shall forevermore remain.
alleluia, alleluia,
cleansing hearts from every stain.

5 Great High Priest of our profession through the veil you entered in;
by your mighty intercession grace and mercy there to win:
alleluia, alleluia,
only sacrifice for sin.

6 Life-impacting heavenly manna, stricken rock with streaming side, heaven and earth with loud hosanna worship you, the Lamb who died,
alleluia, alleluia,
risen, ascended, glorified!

Final Hymn

1 The day of resurrection!
earth, tell it out abroad;
the passover of gladness,
the passover of God:
from death to life eternal,
from earth up to the sky,
our Christ has brought us over with hymns of victory.

2 Our hearts be pure from evil, that we may see aright
the Lord in rays eternal of resurrection light;
and listening to his greeting may hear, so calm and strong,
his own 'All hail' and, hearing,
may raise the victors' song.

3 Now let the heavens be joyful and earth her song repeat, the whole world shout in triumph
her living Lord to greet;
let all things seen and unseen their notes of gladness blend, for Christ the Lord has risen,
our joy that has no end.

Ordinary Sunday 23 A [Pentecost 15] – Sunday 10 September 2023 • Exodus 12.1-14; Psalm 149; Romans 13.1-10; Matthew 18.10-20 It's very easy to get stuck doing the same kind of things over and over, and thereby get ourselves into a rut. Perhaps that is why the Psalmist says to us today: 'O praise the Lord, and sing to the Lord a new song'. Sometimes our religious life needs something new to allow it to develop and mature – we're called, after all, to have a child-like faith, not a childish one. This week, try something new to spruce-up and re-energise your religious life, remembering always to praise our Redeemer, Jesus Christ. • Lord, encourage me to somehow 'sing a new song' to you this week, lest my spiritual life become stale. • Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Kenya. Canon Anne writes:

Canon Anne writes: Today we welcome the Revd Emma Street who will preside and preach at our two services while Canon Anne attends SYNOD. Please pray for our Synod reps: Phil Fraser, Peter Ogilvie and Helen Rainger. This year we meet at Canberra Grammar School and our Musical Director has created a Synod Choir from Clergy and Lay Members including some of our own Cathedral singers. We are especially grateful for the time they are giving to help the Friday night Opening Eucharist. Always a splendid event.

The faces of homelessness in Australia are people in need of protection - particularly women and children who are escaping domestic and family violence; people living with mental illness and other debilitating medical issues and disabilities, and people seeking protection as refugees in Australia.

Homelessness in Australia is often hidden for those in our community, like people seeking asylum with no work rights and no income support, while they wait for resolution of their visa status.

Many people are in substandard accommodation, overcrowded housing, as well as couch surfing. This is the unseen homelessness in Australia. For most of us, homelessness is only noticeable to us when people are sleeping rough under road bridges and in railway and bus station access areas.

Many church and community charities are providing support to prevent people from becoming homeless. Families are seeking assistance with rental support.

Australian Churches Refugee Taskforce is encouraging support of the Everybody's Home campaign, by contacting your Federal MP and Senator, to support the development of a national strategy to end homelessness that embraces all vulnerable groups including people seeking asylum in Australia.

‘Whatever you do for the least of these, you did for me.’ (cf Matt 25:40)
