A Reading from Exodus 14, 19-31

The angel of God who was going before the Israelite army moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from in front of them and took its place behind them. It came between the army of Egypt and the army of Israel. And so the cloud was there with the darkness, and it lit up the night; one did not come near the other all night.

Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The LORD drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and turned the sea into dry land; and the waters were divided. The Israelites went into the sea on dry ground, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left. The Egyptians pursued, and went into the sea after them, all of Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and chariot drivers. At the morning watch the LORD in the pillar of fire and cloud looked down upon the Egyptian army, and threw the Egyptian army into panic. He clogged their chariot wheels so that they turned with difficulty. The Egyptians said, 'Let us flee from the Israelites, for the LORD is fighting for them against Egypt.'

Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and chariot drivers.' So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea returned to its normal depth. As the Egyptians fled before it, the LORD tossed the Egyptians into the sea. The waters returned and covered the chariots and the chariot drivers, the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not one of them remained. But the Israelites walked on dry ground through the sea, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left.

Thus the LORD saved Israel that day from the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. Israel saw the great work that the LORD did against the Egyptians. So the people feared the LORD and believed in the LORD and in his servant Moses.

Psalm 114

Tenue Perigrinus

1. When Israel came | out of | Egypt :
and the house of Jacob
from among a people | of an | alien | tongue,
2. Judah be- | came his | sanctuary :
and | Israel | his do- | minion.
3. The sea saw | that, and | fled :
Jor- | dan was | driven | back.
4. The mountains | skipped like | rams :
and the little | hills like | young | sheep.
5. What ailed you, O sea, | that you | fled :
O Jordan, that | you were | driven | back?
6. You mountains, that you | skipped like | rams :
and you little | hills like | young | sheep?
7. Tremble, O earth, at the presence | of the | Lord :
at the presence | of the | God of | Jacob,
8. Who turned the rock into a | pool of | water :
and the flint-stone | into . a | welling | spring.

Reading from Romans 14. 1-14

Welcome those who are weak in faith, but not for the purpose of quarrelling over opinions. Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables. Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgement on those who eat; for God has welcomed them. Who are you to pass judgement on servants of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds. Those who observe the day, observe it in honour of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honour of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honour of the Lord and give thanks to God.

We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Why do you pass judgement on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgement seat of God. For it is written,

'As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me,
and every tongue shall give praise to God.'

So then, each of us will be accountable to God.

Let us therefore no longer pass judgement on one another, but resolve instead never to put a stumbling-block or hindrance in the way of another. I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself; but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean.

Gradual Hymn

1 Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us
o'er the world's tempestuous sea;
guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us,
for we have no help but thee;
yet possessing every blessing,
if our God our Father be.

2 Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us;
all our weakness thou dost know;
thou didst tread this earth before us,
thou didst feel its keenest woe;
lone and dreary, faint and weary,
through the desert thou didst go.

3 Spirit of our God, descending,
fill our hearts with heavenly joy,
love with every passion blending,
pleasure that can never cloy:
thus provided, pardoned, guided,
nothing can our peace destroy.

The Gospel of St Matthew 18 .21-35

Then Peter came and said to him, 'Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?' Jesus said to him, 'Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.'

'For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, "Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything." And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow-slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, "Pay what you owe." Then his fellow-slave fell down and pleaded with him, "Have patience with me, and I will pay you." But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he should pay the debt. When his fellow-slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. Then his lord summoned him and said to him, "You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow-slave, as I had mercy on you?" And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he should pay his entire debt. So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart.'

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Baptism Hymn

Father welcomes all his children
to his family through his Son.
Father giving his salvation,
life forever has been won.

1. Little children, come to me,
for my kingdom is of these;
life and love I have to give,
mercy for your sin.

2. In the water, in the word,
in his promise be assured:
those who are baptised and believe shall be born again.

3. Let us daily die to sin,
let us daily rise with him —
walk in the love of Christ our Lord,
live in the peace of God.

Final Hymn

Make Me A Channel Of Your Peace

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love;
Where there is injury your pardon, Lord;
And where there's doubt true faith in you.

Refrain:

Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life let me bring hope;
Where there is darkness, only light;
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

Refrain

Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
In giving to all men that we receive;
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Ordinary Sunday 24 A [Pentecost 16] – Sunday 17 September 2023 • Exodus 14.19-31; Either Psalm 114 or Exodus 15.1-13, 17-18; Romans 14.1-14; Matthew 18.21-35 Both today's psalm and the alternative canticle remind us of the Easter Vigil where the Church celebrates the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt. This miracle is the focus of the Jewish Passover. The Psalmist tells us that God is powerful enough to have turned the 'rock into a pool of water and the flint-stone into a welling spring'. If we look, we can find those times where God has caused miracles to happen in our own lives. There are probably times, if we look carefully enough, when God has done something miraculous for our country. Let us all be attentive this week to see where we can find God's miracles in our own lives, among our friends and families and within Australia. • Lord, help me to find miracles, both big and small, in the world. • Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Korea, the Daehan Seong Gong Hoe. Canon Anne writes:

Last weekend the diocesan Synod took place with some 350 participants gathered at Canberra Grammar School. The Bishop's Charge began the Friday evening followed by the Synod Eucharist. Thanks to Debra McConnell our Director of Music who gathered a choir of Cathedral and Synod volunteers to sing. It was a great success.

done and completed with no debt to meet. A great relief! Thanks too to our Synod reps – Helen Rainger, Phil Fraser and Peter Ogilvie who gave up three days to sit, listen and take part in debate and decision making. Motions that arose on issues of Affordable Housing, the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Voice, Women in Ministry, Poverty in Australia and Voluntary Assisted Dying. There were presentations on the Diocesan Climate Change Action Plan, Chaplaincy across our diocese and St Martin's College. Discussion was done in a spirit of generosity and understanding.

Yesterday our Heritage Committee with friends, sponsors and parish members celebrated the relaunch of our Great East Window. The sun shone and the glory of the cleaned glass was revealed at its best. It has been a long project due to flooding, mould, cracking and the unknown of what lay beneath the window. With the generous donations and thanks to the State and National Trust, the work is done and completed with no debt to meet. A great relief!

Thursday evening we enjoyed a wonderful concert by the Brisbane Chamber Choir and this coming week on Thursday at 11am the CWA will celebrate its 100th Year Anniversary here in Goulburn. We congratulate them on this milestone and the wonderful contribution made to the Goulburn community.

Every Blessing Anne
