SENTENCE

Peace be with you,' says the Lord . 'As the Father has sent me ,so I send you .

John 20.21

COLLECT

Risen Christ ,
whose absence leaves us in despair
but whose presence is overwhelming:
breathe on us with your abundant life,
that where we cannot see we may have courage to believe that we may be raised with you. Amen

We acknowledge the Traditional Owners as the custodians of this land, recognising their connection to land, waters and community. We pay our respects to Australia's First Peoples, and to their Elders, past present and emerging.

Introit Hymn

6 That Eastertide with joy was bright,
the sun shone out with fairer light,
Alleluia, alleluia!

when to their longing eyes restored
the apostles saw their risen Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,
alleluia, alleluia!

7 He showed to them his hands, his side, where yet the glorious wounds abide:
alleluia, alleluia!

the tokens true which made it plain their Lord indeed was risen again.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,
alleluia, alleluia!

8 Jesus, the king of gentleness,
come now yourself our hearts possess,
alleluia, alleluia!

that we may give you all our days
the tribute of our grateful praise.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia,
alleluia, alleluia!

Acts 4.32-37

The whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them. Now, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need. There was a Levite, a native of Cyprus, Joseph, to whom the apostles gave the name Barnabas (which means 'son of encouragement'). He sold a field that belonged to him, then brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Paul Paviour (1931-)

- 1 Behold how good and how | lovely · it | is:
when families | live to-|gether · in | unity.
- 2a It is fragrant as oil u-|pon the | head,
that | runs down | over · the | beard:
- 2b fragrant as oil upon the | beard of | Aārōn,

which is | life for | ever-|more.

1 John 1.1-22

We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life— this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us— we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true; but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us

Thanks be to God

Gradual Hymn

1 Community of Christ,
who make the Cross your own,
live out your creed and risk your life
for God alone:

the God who wears your face,
to whom all worlds belong, whose children are of every race and every song.

2 Community of Christ,
look past the Church's door
and see the refugee, the hungry, and the poor.

Take hands with the oppressed,
the jobless in your street,
take towel and water, that you wash your neighbour's feet.

3 Community of Christ,
through whom the word must sound - cry out for justice and for peace
the whole world round:
disarm the powers that war
and all that can destroy, turn bombs to bread, and tears of anguish into joy.

4 When menace melts away,
so shall God's will be done,
the climate of the world be peace
and Christ its Sun;
our currency be love
and kindness our law,
our food and faith be shared as one

John 20.19-31

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.'

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, 'We have seen the Lord.' But he said to them, 'Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.'

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' Then he said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.' Thomas answered him, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him, 'Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.'

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Glory to you lord Jesus Christ

Communion Hymn

1 Christ is made the
sure foundation,
Christ the head and cornerstone,
chosen by the Lord, and precious,
binding all the church in one,
holy Zion's help for ever,
and her confidence alone.

2 All that dedicated city, dearly loved of God on high,
in exultant jubilation
pours perpetual melody;
God the Three in One ador-
ing,
praising him eternally.

3 Here among us, where we call you
come, O Lord our God, today;
with your gentle lovingkindness
hear your people as we pray, and your fullest benediction pour upon us here today.

4 Here bestow on all your people
what we ask of you to gain, what we gain from you for ever with the blessed to retain,
and hereafter in your glory evermore with you to reign.

5 Praise and honour to the Father, praise and honour to the Son, praise and honour to the Spirit,
ever Three and ever One,
one in might and one in glory
while eternal ages run.

Final Hymn

1 I know that my Redeemer lives - what joy this blest assurance gives!
He lives, he lives, who once was dead;
he lives, my everlasting Head.

2 He lives, to bless me with his love:
he lives, to plead for me above;
he lives my hungry soul to feed;
he lives to help in time of need.

3 He lives, and grants me daily breath;
he lives, and I shall conquer death;
he lives, my mansion to prepare;
he lives, to lead me safely there.

4 He lives, all glory to his name;
he lives, my Saviour, still the same;
what joy the blest assurance gives,
I know that my Redeemer lives!

ABM Reflection: The Annunciation – Lady Day – Monday 8 April 2024 • Isaiah 7.10-14; Psalm 40.6-13; Hebrews 10.4-10; Luke 1.26-38 Only ten days ago we stood at the cross with Mary, the mother of Jesus, as her dying son entrusted her care to the beloved disciple, just before he took his final breath. The image is visceral and haunting as the one who bore him, who has nursed and nurtured him, in that awful moment is powerless to care for or comfort her child, as he is dying an excruciating and humiliating death. He is “her child” even as he is the Son of God. He is that same child whom the Angel Gabriel announced would be conceived in her through the power of the Holy Spirit, because “nothing will be impossible with God.” (Luke 1:37) What seemed impossible at the annunciation - a virgin who has not had any sexual partner who becomes pregnant, and what seemed impossible at the foot of the cross – a dying man who within three days defies the powers of sin and death once and for all, to rise from the dead, are absolutely possible. In God’s mysterious way this impossible conquering of death announced that Jesus is exactly who he was prophesied to be (cf Isaiah 7:14), and he has fulfilled the promise of his name given to him by the Angel Gabriel: “God saves”. • We pray for the worldwide Mother’s Union today and give thanks for their ministry with families. • Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of North India Text: The Rev Angela Peverell, Diocese of Newcastle © Anglican Board of Mission, 202

Module 1 is a course for all clergy and lay position holders to develop awareness of the Diocesan Safe Ministry policy, protocols, procedures, and practices. The training includes biblical foundations, healthy team ministry, screening, boundaries, code of conduct, duty of care, child safe practices, responding to concerns (child and adult related), and self-care as church workers.*

Module 2 is a course for all children and youth workers (lay and clergy) to develop awareness of Child Safety and Child Protection. This course includes empowering children, identifying and responding to concerns (risk of harm), reducing the risks of child abuse, and caring for all parties.*

Module 3 is a course for all clergy, Parish Council members, Parish Safe Ministry Coordinators (SMCs) and Ministry Program Coordinators aimed at working through the implementation of Dioce-* san Safe Ministry Policy, Protocols, and Procedures (in particular the Child Safe Standards, Reportable Conduct Scheme, screening of workers, Grievance Procedure, Professional Standards, and Ministry to Persons of Concern).

Online programs remain available for Modules 1 and 2 via the Creating Safer Communities website. Module 3 is only available through In-Person or Zoom sessions.

2. Payment for In Person Training: Attendees at the above sessions do not need to need to prepay or pay on the day. Instead, attendance at sessions will be recorded and Creating Safer Communities will invoice each Ministry Unit directly for the number of attendees from it.

While bookings are not necessary, if Ministry Units are able to give indications of attendance to the Safe Ministry Unit it will help us understanding the number of likely attendees at any given session.

3. Safe Ministry Training and Parish Elections: Can you please ensure that those elected as Parish Councillors and Wardens understand their obligation to complete Safe Ministry Training and Screening to hold Office (they are Category 3A Church Workers under the Diocese's Protocol for Safe Ministry Screening and Training (SM002-Screening-Protocol.pdf \(anglicancg.org.au\)). We are requesting that all necessary training including Module 3 be completed no later than June 2024, and that Wardens and Parish Counselors remember their obligation to also create and maintain their Safe Ministry Information System (SMIS) profile.

Pew sheet April Low Sunday

Yesterday, despite inclement weather we celebrated the 140th Anniversary of the arrival of Mesac and Mary Thomas to Goulburn. The Hall market was a-buzz with those hunting for bargains and suddenly the Town Crier arrived with Mesac and Mary in tow. Even the weather was true to form with rain and mud and wind just as it was all those years ago. Thank you to all who took part in another historic event in our cathedral parish life.

It was a huge week in all churches across the world and for us it was truly a great experience for all. On Passion/ Palm Sunday our Music Director, Deb McConnell arranged a concert featuring local talent, Conservatorium students, soloists and our own choir. It was a feast of variety and wonderful music. Richard Orchard set the scene for all that followed and the cathedral held some 200 people. Holy Week was well underway.

The choir was involved in all our major services and we say Thank You to its members for their dedication and commitment. The Triduum of Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Day happens due to the small working team who day after day turn up to put away and prepare for the next Passion of Christ event. Many are involved in the liturgies and we are grateful for the Servers and Sacristy team, readers, pray-ers, welcomers and flower arrangers. We had many visitors from all over the state and nation as well as our Guest preachers and Deacon Gaynor.

The Brunch finished off our week with many gathered in the Mary Thomas Room and thanks too to those who supplied food for sustenance. A special Thank You to someone who works for us behind the scene each week producing our Pew Sheet and for Easter a special coloured booklet for all the children attending. Vanessa Kemp enjoys her role with us while attending West Goulburn.

Our final two historic events take place over one weekend at the end of April. Saturday Luncheon for the Friends of the Cathedral celebrating 25 Years of fundraising and completed projects for the cathedral building. After today's service please do make your way into the room behind the Pulpit to see the beautiful vestment wardrobes and then to the Halkett Room to see the finished kitchen.

We are powering ahead to prepare the Deanery for occupation and a huge Thank You to Richard Orchard for his contribution. A job well done!

Our Cathedral Prayer

Almighty God whose hand has guided and sustained your Church through many generations, accept our prayers for this Cathedral church, bless all who serve within its walls and strengthen the hands of those who seek to ensure its future. Make it a constant witness to your glory and a place of peace and joy: for the sake of your Son our Saviour Amen

A Prayer for St. George's Cathedral, our sister church in Jerusalem Our God, as you nurture the Body of Christ in different places, we ask your blessing for our sister church, St. George's. In these difficult times, may your Spirit sustain, guide and protect your people there. Bring joy to them as they witness to your presence. In Jesus' name, Amen

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice, we pray for the people of Ukraine today. We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons. We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow, that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them. We pray for those with power over war or peace, for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions. Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them. We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace, Amen . Archbishop Justin Welby/Archbishop Stephen Cottrell

Call to Prayer for Israel and Hamas Conflict

As the Israeli-Hamas war continues, the Patriarchs and Heads of Churches in Jerusalem, have issued a call for a global day of prayer and fasting on I've forwarded the call to prayer below for your information, in case you have not received it. In the midst of your busy lives, please join our brothers and sisters across the Anglican Communion when you have an extra moment to pray.. While you're praying, please also remember Afghanistan, which has now been affected by four earthquakes each in excess of 6.0. Thousands are dead, thousands more injured, so many whose families have been lost, and countless homes destroyed. Please pray for believers to be a blessing in this time, and that the nation receives aid and hope for the future. As the eyes of the world are focused on conflicts elsewhere, little aid is being offered..
