Introit Hymn The strife is over

1 The strife is o'er, the battle done;
the victory of life is won;
the song of triumph has begun.
Alleluia!

2 The powers of death have done their worst,
but Christ their legions has dispersed.
Let shouts of holy joy outburst.
Alleluia!

3 The three sad days are quickly sped;
he rises glorious from the dead.
All glory to our risen Head.
Alleluia!

4 He closed the yawning gates of hell;
the bars from heaven's high portals fell.
Let hymns of praise his triumph tell.
Alleluia!

5 Lord, by the stripes which wounded thee,
from death's dread sting thy servants free,
that we may live and sing to thee.
Alleluia!

Final Ending:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Psalter Hymnal, (Gray)

Sentence

Repent and be baptised every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins maybe forgiven ;and you will receive the Holy Spirit.

Collect

O God

Your Son made himself known to the disciples

In the breaking of bread:

Open the eyes of our faith ,

That we may see him in his redeeming work ;

Who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

One God now and forever Amen.

Isaiah 42 6-16

I am the LORD, I have called you in righteousness,
I have taken you by the hand and kept you;
I have given you as a covenant to the people,
a light to the nations,
to open the eyes that are blind,
to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
from the prison those who sit in darkness.
I am the LORD, that is my name;
my glory I give to no other,
nor my praise to idols.
See, the former things have come to pass,
and new things I now declare;
before they spring forth,
I tell you of them.

Sing to the LORD a new song,
his praise from the end of the earth!
Let the sea roar and all that fills it,
the coastlands and their inhabitants.
Let the desert and its towns lift up their voice,
the villages that Kedar inhabits;
let the inhabitants of Sela sing for joy,
let them shout from the tops of the mountains.
Let them give glory to the LORD,
and declare his praise in the coastlands.
The LORD goes forth like a soldier,
like a warrior he stirs up his fury;
he cries out, he shouts aloud,
he shows himself mighty against his foes.

For a long time I have held my peace,
I have kept still and restrained myself;
now I will cry out like a woman in labour,
I will gasp and pant.
I will lay waste mountains and hills,
and dry up all their herbage;
I will turn the rivers into islands,
and dry up the pools.
I will lead the blind
by a road they do not know,
by paths they have not known
I will guide them.
I will turn the darkness before them into light,
the rough places into level ground.
These are the things I will do,
and I will not forsake them.

For the word of the LORD

Psalm 116.1-4,11-18

1 I love the Lord, because he I heard my I voice :

The I voice . of my | suppli- I cation;

2 Because he inclined his I ear to I me:

In the I day . that I called to him.

3 The cords of death encompassed me,

the snares of the grave took I hold on I me :

I was in I anguish I and I sorrow.

4 Then I called upon the I name . of the I Lord :

'O Lord, I . be- I seech you, de- I liver me!'

11 How shall I re- I pay the I Lord:

For I all his I bene- fits I to me?

12 I will take up the I cup of . sal- I vation:

And call up- I on the I name. of the I Lord.

13 I will pay my I vows. to the I Lord:

In the I presence . of I all his I people.

14 Grievous in the sight I of the I Lord:

Is the death I of his I faithful I ones.

15 O Lord, I am your servant, your servant and the child I of your I handmaid:

You I have un- | loosed my I bonds.

16 will offer you a sacrifice of I thanks- I giving:

And call up- I on the I name . of the I Lord.

17 I will pay my vows I to the I Lord:

In the presence of I all his I people.

18 In the courts of the I house. of the I Lord:

Even in your midst, O Jerusalem. I Praise I the I Lord.

1 Peter 1.13-25

Therefore prepare your minds for action; discipline yourselves; set all your hope on the grace that Jesus Christ will bring you when he is revealed. Like obedient children, do not be conformed to the desires that you formerly had in ignorance. Instead, as he who called you is holy, be holy yourselves in all your conduct; for it is written, 'You shall be holy, for I am holy.'

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God. For

'All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass.

The grass withers,

and the flower falls,

but the word of the Lord endures for ever.'

That word is the good news that was announced to you.

For the word of the Lord

Gradual Hymn

We Have A Gospel To Proclaim
Good News For Men In All The Earth;
The Gospel Of A Saviour's Name:
We Sing His Glory, Tell His Worth.

Tell Of His Birth At Bethlehem,
Not In A Royal House Or Hall
But In A Stable Dark And Dim:
The Word Made Flesh, A Light For All.

Tell Of His Death At Calvary,
Hated By Those He Came To Save;
In Lonely Suffering On The Cross
For All He Loved, His Life He Gave.

Tell Of That Glorious Easter Morn:
Empty The Tomb, For He Was Free.
He Broke The Power Of Death And Hell
That We Might Share His Victory.

Tell Of His Reign At God's Right Hand,
By All Creation Glorified;
He Sends His Spirit On His Church
To Live For Him, The Lamb Who Died.

Now We Rejoice To Name Him King:
Jesus Is Lord Of All The Earth.
This Gospel Message We Proclaim:
We Sing His Glory, Tell His Worth.

Luke 24.13-35

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures. As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Communion Hymn

1 I danced in the morning when the world was begun,
And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun,
And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth,
At Bethlehem I had my birth.

Refrain:

"Dance, then, wherever you may be;
I am the Lord of the Dance," said he.
"I'll lead you all wherever you may be,
I will lead you all in the Dance," said he.

2 I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee,
But they would not dance and they wouldn't follow me;
I danced for the fishermen, for James and for John;
They came with me and the dance went on. [Refrain]

3 I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame,
The holy people, they said it was a shame;
They whipped and they stripped and they hung me high,
And they left me there on a cross to die. [Refrain]

4 I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black;
It's hard to dance with the devil on your back;
They buried my body and they thought I'd gone,
But I am the dance and I still go on. [Refrain]

5 They cut me down and I leapt up high,
I am the life that'll never, never die,
I'll live in you if you'll live in me;
"I am the Lord of the Dance," said he. [Refrain]

Final Hymn

Christ the Lord is risen today: Hallelujah!
Let the whole creation say: Hallelujah!
Raise your joys and triumphs high: Hallelujah!
Sing now, heaven, and earth reply: Hallelujah!

2 Love's redeeming work is done; Hallelujah!
fought the fight, the battle won; Hallelujah!
vain the stone, the watch the seal: Hallelujah!
Christ has burst the gates of hell. Hallelujah!

3 Lives again our glorious king; Hallelujah!
where, O death, is now your sting? Hallelujah!
Once he died our souls to save; Hallelujah!
where your victory, O grave? Hallelujah!

4 Soar we now where Christ has led, Hallelujah!
following our exalted Head; Hallelujah!
made like him, like him we rise; Hallelujah!
ours the cross, the grave, the skies. Hallelujah!

ABM Reflection

The Gospel of Matthew's account of the resurrection juxtaposes the disciples' response of fear and joy (when Jesus reassures them in their fear) with that of the chief priests' scheming and manipulation. Those who trust in the resurrection have a hope that transcends worldly power machinations; there is nothing to defend or protect, only a life to be joyfully lived. We need not be troubled by those who seek to control, for they have no authentic power. Notice what fears still seek to control you; gently place them in the care of Christ, who invites us beyond our fear, to lasting joy. • Pray for the Anglican Church of Melanesia as it seeks to address displacement of the communities in the Solomon Islands from the impacts of climate change. • Give thanks for the work and witness of the Melanesian Brotherhood, the Melanesian Sisterhood, the Society of St Francis and the Sisters of the Church who minister throughout the Pacific Islands. Canon Anne writes:

Today we are delighted that five members of the Little family will be baptised into the Church of God. We welcome Mahleek, Miah, Jikayia, Marinda and Belinda. They are all very excited and will have a large party of 30 friends and family to support them.

This Tuesday is Anzac Day and as is our custom those who visit the Cathedral will find the Soldiers' Chapel decorated with poppies and a wonderful banner standing alongside the hundreds of names on the walls of those who died in wars from our Diocese. Please join us in Belmore Park at 5.30am or if preferred 11am for the Commemoration Service and watch the March from 10.30am.

What an extravaganza of sacred music and worship we all experienced last Sunday with the visiting St Paul's College Chapel Choir. Young, vibrant voices of university students resounded in wonderful harmony throughout the Cathedral accompanied on Organ by Dr Brett McKern. In preparation for their overseas trip to sing in Westminster Abbey and York Minster we will invite them to join us again in 2024 before they tour the UK in December 2024.

Please note the Safe Ministry workshop that will be held at St Nicholas' Goulburn on Saturday 17 June. There are now three Levels and another two to come in future years. Those who joined me with Dean Phillip in the Mary Thomas Room in 2020 must now move to Level 3. Blessings to all.
