Readings

Acts 17.22-31

Psalm 66. 7-19

1 Peter 3.8-22

John 14.15-21

We acknowledge the Traditional Owners as the custodians of this land, recognising their connection to land, waters and community. We pay our respects to Australia's First Peoples, and to their Elders, past present and emerging.

Introit hymn

1 All creatures of our God and King, lift up your voice and with us sing
alleluia, alleluia;

O burning sun with golden beam,
and silver moon with softer gleam,
O praise him, O praise him,
alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

2 Swift-rushing winds that art so strong,
and clouds that sail in heaven along,
O praise him, alleluia;
fresh-rising morn, in praise rejoice,
and lights of evening, find a voice,
O praise him, O praise him,
alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

3 O flowing water, pure and clear, make music for thy Lord to hear,
alleluia, alleluia!
O fire, so masterful and bright,
providing us with warmth and light,
O praise him, O praise him,
alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

4 Dear mother earth, who day by day unfold rich blessings on our way,
O praise him, alleluia!
All flowers and fruit that in you grow,
let them his glory also show;
O praise him, O praise him,
alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

5 And everyone of tender heart, forgiving others, take your part,
O praise him, alleluia!

All who long pain and sorrow bear, praise God and on him cast your care;

O praise him, O praise him,
alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Sentence

‘Those who love me will keep my word” Jesus promises, ‘and my Father will love them and we will come to them and make our home with them’.

Collect

O God,
You have prepared for those who love you
Joys beyond our understanding;
Pour into our hearts such love for you,
That, loving you above all else,
We may obtain your promises
That exceed all we can desire
Through Jesus Christ our Lord,
Who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit ,
One God now and for ever. Amen.

Acts 17. 22-31

Then Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, 'Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, "To an unknown god." What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For "In him we live and move and have our being"; as even some of your own poets have said,

"For we too are his offspring."

Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.'

Easter 6 (Year A) Psalm 66

George J Elvey (1816-1893)

2nd half

- 7 O Bless our | God, you | peoples:
and cause his | praises | to re-|sound,
- 8 Who has held our | souls in | life:
who has not | suffered · our | feet to | slip.
- †9 For you have proved | us, O | God:
you have | tried us · as | silver · is | tried.
- 10 You brought us | into · the | net:
you laid sharp | torment | on our | loins.
- 11 You let our enemies ride over our heads,
we went through | fire and | water:
but you brought us out | into · a | place of | liberty.
- 12 I will come into your house with | burnt-|offerings:
and I will | pay you | my | vows.
- 13 The vows that | opened · my | lips:
that my mouth uttered | when I | was in | trouble.
- 14 I will offer you burnt-offerings of fattened beasts,
with the sweet | smoke of | rams:
I will sacrifice a | bull · and the | flesh of | goats.
- 15 Come then and hear, all you that | fear | God:
and I will tell what | he has | done for | me.
- 16 I called him | with my | mouth:
and his | praise was | on my | tongue.
- 17 If I had cherished wickedness | in my | heart:
the | Lord would | not have | heard me.
- 18 But | God has | heard me:
he has | heeded · the | voice of · my | prayer.
- 19 Praise | be to | God:
who has not turned back my prayer,* or his | steadfast | love from | me.

1 Peter 3.8-22

Finally, all of you, have unity of spirit, sympathy, love for one another, a tender heart, and a humble mind. Do not repay evil for evil or abuse for abuse; but, on the contrary, repay with a blessing. It is for this that you were called—that you might inherit a blessing. For ‘Those who desire life and desire to see good days,

let them keep their tongues from evil and their lips from speaking deceit;

let them turn away from evil and do good;

let them seek peace and pursue it.

For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayer.

But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.’

Now who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good? But even if you do suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear, and do not be intimidated, but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make your defence to anyone who demands from you an account of the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and reverence. Keep your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who abuse you for your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if suffering should be God’s will, than to suffer for doing evil. For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit, in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison, who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight people, were saved through water. And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you—not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him.

For the word of the Lord

Gradual Hymn

By your kingly power O risen Lord ,
All that Adam lost is now restored:
In your resurrection be adored

1 Sing the joyful Easter cry
Sound it to the souls in prison,
Shout our triumph to the sky:
Sing Christ is risen ,Christ is risen

2 Sing the joyful Easter cry
Let all times and peoples listen :
Death has no more victory ,
Sing Christ is risen ,sing Christ is risen

3. Death has lost and life has won ;
Every newborn soul we christen
Has the Father's child become :
Sing Christ is risen ,sing Christ is risen.

The Gospel of our Lord : John 14.15-21

'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

'I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Hymn

1 Come down, O Love divine, seek now this soul of mine,
and visit it with our own ardour glowing;
O Comforter, draw near,
within my heart appear and kindle it, your holy flame bestowing.

2 There let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn to dust and ashes, in its heat consuming;
and let your glorious light shine ever on my sight and clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

3 Let holy charity
my outward garment be,
and lowliness become my inner clothing:
true lowliness of heart,
which takes the humbler part and for its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

4 And so the yearning strong,
with which the soul will long,
shall far outpass the power of human telling;
for none can guess its grace till we become the place in which the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.

Prayer and joyful worship

The ministry of hospitality

Serving the broader community

Supporting those from diverse backgrounds including those with special needs

Supporting Goulburn and the Diocese in good times and in times of adversity

ABM REFLECTION :Commandments in John's writings are more than moral precepts but involve a whole way of life in loving union with God, through Jesus his Son. Keeping God's commandments is maintaining our relationship with God, initiated and maintained by the very gift of God himself to us through the sending of the Holy Spirit. Through the Holy Spirit, we know the Father and receive Jesus his Son. We can then live because Jesus lives in us.

• We give thanks for the gifts from God through the sending of the Holy Spirit: knowing God, living in God, living in the life which is in Jesus. • Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of Ceylon. Text: Michael D St Paul's Cathedral, Sale © Anglican Board of Mission, 202

Final Hymn

1 Immortal, invisible, God only wise, in light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
most blessèd, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, almighty, victorious, your great name we praise.

2 Unresting, unhasting, and silent as light, nor wanting, nor wasting, but ruling in might;
your justice like mountains high soaring above,
your clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

3 You give life to all, Lord, to both great and small,
in all life now living, the true life of all;
we blossom and flourish as leaves on a tree,
then wither: but ever unchanged you will be.

4 Great Father of glory, pure Father of light,
your angels adore you, all veiling their sight;
of all your rich graces this grace, Lord, impart-- take the veil from our faces, the veil from our heart.

5 All praise we would render: reveal to our sight
what hides you is only the splendour of light;
and so let your glory, Almighty, impart,
through Christ in the story, your Christ to the heart.

Day

Canon Anne Writes:

Today we warmly welcome our Guest Preacher, the Right Rev'd Dr Sarah Macneil. One time Rector of Ainslee, former Dean of St Peter's Cathedral, Adelaide and Vicar-General of the Diocese, Bishop of Grafton and now retired, but when do any clergy really retire? She with her husband Ian, also a priest have done extensive ministries across the Australian Church and especially our own Canberra-Goulburn Diocese. It is lovely to be able to welcome Sarah and Ian back to our Mother Church.

Last week's Service for the Coronation of King Charles saw 200 people at our special Evensong. It certainly was a big weekend watching all that took place in Westminster Abbey and we were one of many celebrating across our country.

Today is Mother's Day. Mother's Day can bring a mix of emotions for many women. There are those anticipating the birth of their first child, step-mums wondering what their place is, those who have lost their mother and are faced with grieving on Mother's Day, there are mums who encounter feelings of hurt because their children have turned from God, and those overwhelmed with pain from the loss of a child.

No matter what you face this Mother's Day, you can turn to God and experience peace and healing through prayer: Dear Father, we approach your throne on behalf of the mothers whom you have entrusted with the care of your most precious little ones. We thank you for creating each mum with a unique combination of gifts and talents. We thank you for the sacrifice of self each gives for her children. For the late nights spent rocking, for the hands calloused from washing, wiping, scrubbing, hugging, patting, disciplining and holding. We especially pray for single mums, who must lean solely on you for the fathering of their children. We also pray for mothers who never had the honour of bearing children but whose nurturing extends to the many poor and needy. We honour and cherish the special women who have nurtured us, and who have prayed for our well-being. Bless every mother and every grandmother with the finest of your spiritual blessings today. Amen.

Pentecost Luncheon :Last year a luncheon was held at the Workers Club for all and about a third of our parish attended. It was a very pleasant gathering. Now a year later, the Parish Council decided to hold a brunch in the parish hall after the only service of the day at 9am. Sandwiches hot food and sweets for $15 per head,$5 for children under 16.We hope the 8am people will attend and get to know new members.

Our Cathedral Prayer

Almighty God whose hand has guided and sustained your Church through many generations, accept our prayers for this Cathedral church, bless all who serve within its walls and strengthen the hands of those who seek to ensure its future. Make it a constant witness to your glory and a place of peace and joy: for the sake of your Son our Saviour Amen

A Prayer for St. George's Cathedral,

our sister church in Jerusalem Our God, as you nurture the Body of Christ in different places, we ask your blessing for our sister church, St. George's. In these difficult times, may your Spirit sustain, guide and protect your people there. Bring joy to them as they witness to your presence. In Jesus' name, Amen

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice, we pray for the people of Ukraine today. We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons. We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow, that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them. We pray for those with power over war or peace, for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions. Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them. We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace, Amen Archbishop Justin Welby/Archbishop Stephen Cottrell
