ABM REFLECTION

In this week's gospel reading Jesus gives us practical advice about how to live a good life: we are to love those that we would not normally be drawn towards – our enemies. We are to do good to those who hate us, bless those who curse us, and pray for those who abuse us. This doesn't mean that those who do bad things to us should be immune from the consequences of their acts, but rather that we should not act in a way that damages ourselves even further. We are not to be judgemental, and we are to avoid condemning others. We are to try to fill our lives with goodness.

Almighty God whose hand has guided and sustained your Church through many generations, accept our prayers for this Cathedral church, bless all who serve within its walls and strengthen the hands of those who seek to ensure its future. Make it a constant witness to your glory and a place of peace and joy: for the sake of your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

A Prayer for St. George's Cathedral, our sister church in Jerusalem

Our God, as you nurture the Body of Christ in different places, we ask your blessing for our sister church, St. George's. In these difficult times, may your Spirit sustain, guide and protect your people there. Bring joy to them as they witness to your presence. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Thy Kingdom Come Prayer:

God of compassion, keep before us the love you have revealed in your Son, who prayed even for his enemies. In our words and deeds help us to be like him, through whom we pray, Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY
FIRST READING*20 FEBRUARY 2022

Reading from GENESIS Chapter 45 beginning at 3rd Verse

Joseph said to his brothers, 'I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?' But his brothers could not answer him, so dismayed were they at his presence.

Then Joseph said to his brothers, 'Come closer to me.' And they came closer. He said, 'I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. And now do not be distressed, or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life.

For the famine has been in the land these two years; and there are five more years in which there will be neither ploughing nor harvest. God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth, and to keep alive for you many survivors. So it was not you who sent me here, but God; he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, "Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay. You shall settle in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children's children, as well as your flocks, your herds, and all that you have.

I will provide for you there—since there are five more years of famine to come—so that you and your household, and all that you have, will not come to poverty." And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them; and after that his brothers talked with him.

SECOND READING

Reading from 1 CORINTHIANS Chapter 15 beginning at 42nd Verse

So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable.

It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body.

If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body. Thus it is written, 'The first man, Adam, became a living being'; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. But it is not the spiritual that is first, but the physical, and then the spiritual.

The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven. Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven.

What I am saying, brothers and sisters, is this: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

FOR THE WORD OF THE LORD

20 FEBRUARY 2022

GOSPEL READINGREADING FROM GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE CHAPTER 6 beginning at 27th VERSE

GLORY TO YOU LORD JESUS CHRIST

...Jesus said, 'Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt.

Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

'If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

'Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given to you.

A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Melody by Thomas Haweis 1734-1820

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of three systems of music. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C).

O changeless Christ, for ever new,
who walked our earthly ways,
still draw our hearts as once you drew
the hearts of other days.

As once you spoke by plain and hill
or taught by shore and sea,
so be today our teacher still,
O Christ of Galilee.

As wind and storm their Master heard
and his command fulfilled,
may troubled hearts receive your word,
the tempest-tossed be stilled.

And as of old to all who prayed your healing hand was shown,
so be your touch upon us laid,
unseen but not unknown.

In broken bread, in wine outpoured,
your new and living way
proclaim to us, O risen Lord,
O Christ of this our day.

O changeless Christ, till life is past your blessing still be given;
then bring us home, to taste at last the timeless joys of heaven.

1. O worship the King all-glorious above,
O gratefully sing his power and his love:
our shield and defender, the ancient of days,
pavilioned in splendour, and girded with praise.
2. O tell of his might, O sing of his grace,
whose robe is the light, whose canopy space;
his chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
and dark is his path on the wings of the storm.
3. Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
in you do we trust, nor find you to fail:
your mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
our maker, defender, redeemer and friend.
4. O measureless might, ineffable love,
while angels delight to hymn you above,
the humbler creation, though faltering their praise,
with true adoration shall sing all their days.

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty,
the King of creation;
O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation.

Come all who hear,
brothers and sisters draw near,
praise him in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things is wondrously reigning and, as on wings of an eagle,
uplifting, sustaining:
have you not seen
all you have needed has been sent by his gracious ordaining?

Praise to the Lord, who will prosper your work and defend us;
surely his goodness and mercy
shall daily attend us:
ponder anew
what the Almighty can do
as with his love he befriends us.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that

PREPARING for LENT

ABM's brilliant new Lenten Study for 2022, 'Repairing the Breach', is now ready .

Seven studies that take you from Ash Wednesday to Palm Sunday.

Canon Anne has purchased 10 copies to sell to the first nine people to sign up. Studies will run on:
Ash Wednesday 2nd March at 4pm followed by the service of Imposition of Ashes at 5pm.

Thereafter on Sundays at 11.30am on 6th, 13th, 20th, 27th March, 3rd, 10th April. We will meet in the Mary Thomas room remaining well spread out and with masks on unless speaking.

Repairing the Breach examines what it means to be people of healing in a broken world. Written by a community of friends for a people of mission – and illustrated with stunning images painted by acclaimed artist, Carol Aust, 'Repairing the Breach' inspires, provokes and cajoles.

A truly Australian resource for parishes, study groups and individuals.

The Mission of God is to repair the breach.

The people of God are participants in that work.

All breach-repair is relational.

A shamed and scared humanity looks at an immutable God, terrified to approach for fear of rejection and judgement. God, taking the ultimate risk, becomes human, builds relationships, steps into our shoes, loves us and is loved by us. God steps towards us. We step towards God. The Breach is repaired.

A poor community watches in despair as the wealthy nations chase further wealth. A visitor comes, not with answers, but with questions. Dialogue ensues. Every member of the community is consulted. Plans are made. Action is taken together. The breach is lessened.

Love, hope, and justice begin their work. Be part of this exciting new study that leads us to realisation and healing.

SIGN-ON SHEET is available in the Narthex
Please consider joining this Lenten study.

TRIALLING SOMETHING NEW

After 8am service on 4TH SUNDAY of each month we will meet for refreshments and fellowship in MARY THOMAS room.

Tea, coffee and a plain biscuit will be offered.
All other Sundays we will continue to go down to Roses Café.

Please come and join us following the service.
COMMENCES: SUNDAY 27 FEBRUARY

Unfortunately until we have volunteers to make up a monthly roster refreshments cannot be served following the 10am Service

If you attend 10am service and would be prepared to setup and clear up just one Sunday per month please consider this ministry and contact the office.

In line with Covid regulations 'fresh' food cannot be provided (sandwiches, baked cakes etc), however we will provide tea/ coffee/sugar and sealed packet biscuits once we have a roster ready.
