Ps 23
Revelation 7. 9-17
John 10. 22-30

NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS

Mark, Evangelist and Martyr
Isaiah 62. 6-12
Ps 89. 1-9
Ephesians 4. 7-16

In the modern world, so many won't take the step of believing in Jesus until the question, similar to this one is answered to their satisfaction, plainly and in scientific terms. "If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly." Jesus has answered this with "The works that I do in my Father's name testify to me". We need to answer the modern doubters in the same way. In Jesus' time the doubters were there with him and could clearly see what he was doing, and yet did not believe. How much harder it is for us, in this day and age to show the works of Jesus to the doubters. The problem is that they are not always easy to see and there are none so blind as those who do not wish to see. Let us find ways to bring the modern miracles of Jesus to those who are blind to them.

We are confident that together we can meet this challenge.

If you are a visitor to Goulburn and the Cathedral today welcome. We hope you enjoy warm fellowship and are inspired by our worship.

FOR YOUR SAFETY: As you leave your seat be mindful of a STEP DOWN as you exit the Cathedral.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
April 17th 2016

Gradual Hymn:

How bright these glorious spirits shine!
Whence all their white array?
How came they to the blissful seats
Of everlasting day?

Lo! These are they from sufferings great
Who came to realms of light,
And in the blood of Christ have washed
Those robes that shine so bright.

The Lamb, who dwells amid the throne,
Shall o'er them still preside,
Feed them with nourishment divine,
And all their footsteps guide.

In pastures green he'll lead his flock
Where living streams appear;
And God the Lord from every eye
Shall wipe off every tear.

Isaac Watts (1674-1748) and others

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
April 17th 2016

Offertory Hymn

Who are these like stars appearing,
These, before God's throne who stand?
Each a golden crown is wearing:
Who are all this glorious band?
Alleluia, hark, they sing,
Praising loud their heavenly King.

Who are these in dazzling brightness,
Clothed in God's own righteousness,
These, whose robes of purest whiteness
Shall their lustre still possess,
Still untouched by time's rude hand?
Whence came all this glorious band?

These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified;
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.

These, th'Almighty contemplating,
Did as priests before him stand,
Soul and body always waiting
Day and night at his command:
Now in God's most holy place
Blest they stand before his face.

Heinrich Schenck (1656-1727) tr. Frances Elizabeth Cox (1812-1897)
CP 229
TUNE: All Saints

Final Hymn

Loving Shepherd of your sheep,
Keep your lamb, in safety keep;
Nothing can your power withstand,
None can pluck me from your hand.

Loving Saviour, you didst give
Your own life that we might live,
And the hands outstretched to bless
Bear the cruel nails' impress.

Loving Shepherd, ever near,
Teach your lamb your voice to hear;
Suffer not my ways to stray
From the straight and narrow way.

Where you lead me I would go,
Walking in your steps below,
Till before the Father's throne
I shall know as I am known.

*Jane E. Leeson (1809-1881) alt.
CP 517
TUNE: Buckland*

PSALM 23

Refrain

G. Oehm

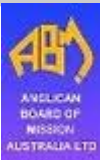

My shep- herd is the Lord, no-thing in - deed shall I want.

G. Oehm

1. The Lord | is my | shepherd :
therefore | can I | lack | nothing.
2. He will make me lie down in | green | pastures :
and lead me be- | side | still | waters.
REFRAIN
3. He will re- | fresh my | soul :
and guide me in right pathways | for his | name's | sake.
4. Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will | fear no | evil :
for you are with me, your | rod . and your | staff | comfort me.
REFRAIN
5. You spread a table before me in the face of | those who | trouble me :
you have anointed my head with oil, | and my | cup . shall be | full.
6. Surely your goodness and loving-kindness
will follow me all the | days of . my | life :
and I shall dwell in the | house of . the | Lord for | ever.
REFRAIN

From Dean Phillip .... ABM is the national mission agency of the Anglican Church of Australia working alongside partners in Australia and overseas, through evangelism and church support. By assisting our partner churches in the Pacific, PNG, Africa, the Middle East and south-East Asia, to train clergy and lay people, they are providing high-level Christian formation and nurturing discipleship and leadership. In this way, we believe our Partners create a solid evangelistic base for themselves. Those who are trained are able to turn their parishes into "mission stations" and these stations bring people to know Jesus through membership of the Church through Holy Baptism and then nourish their faith through the sacraments and through Scripture.

ABM programs support Aboriginals and Torres Strait Islanders who work in their own communities with other indigenous people. Integrating different cultures, they are spreading the Good News by preaching or helping others. They support the work of individuals, such as the Revd Gloria Shipp and groups, such as St. Andrew's Cathedral School, in the inspiring work they do.

A strong and vibrant church that focuses on evangelism and growth can also be an effective and efficient provider of services to the wider community. Services such as education and literacy, health and HIV treatment, water and sanitation projects are examples of this which are all reflected in ABM projects.

If you would like to support the work of ABM through "loose change" boxes please collect one from "Welcomers" station. We will give you notice when they are due for counting, which will be quarterly.
