Ps 77. 1-2, 11-20
Galatians 5. 1, 13-25
Luke 9. 51-62

NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS Feast of St Thomas

Habakkuk 2. 1-4
Ps 117
Ephesians 2. 19-22
John 20. 24-29

The Gospel reading outlines in a very stark way the cost of following Jesus. In it Jesus makes some very demanding requirements. In our modern day, we are not usually asked to make these sorts of commitments in our life in Christ – some do. Many non-believers see these statements as too difficult and believe that they will have to give up too much in order to become a Christian. It is up to us to convince them that one can adjust home and family situations and still do our duty to God. Yes, we do have to deny ourselves some of the worldly pleasures but most of us tend to lead a life within the bounds of what one might call ‘normality’. We can commit to Jesus without becoming homeless, leaving family or bankruptcy. There is more to Christianity than material possessions.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
June 26th 2016

Opening Hymn:

From ancient pilgrim hospital where love met human plight
To modern service to the sick, restoring health and sight,
Beneath the banner of the Cross, the white cross of St John,
The healing work of Christ the Lord, through time and change goes on.

Bless those we serve: the young the aged, the injured and distressed;
Our charge, to be swift to messengers of love made manifest.
Beneath the banner of the Cross, the white cross of St John,
The healing work of Christ the Lord must in His name go on.

Bless us who serve you day and night; keep us within your care,
Who go to help the wounded world in trauma, pain and fear.
Beneath the banner of the Cross, the white cross of St John,
The healing work of Christ the Lord shall in His name go on.

We vow to you the skills we bring: our hands your hands must be;
Our hearts your living heart of love for all humanity.
Beneath the banner of the Cross, the white cross of St John,
The healing work of Jesus Christ we proudly carry on.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
June 26th 2016

Gradual Hymn

Spirit divine, attend our prayers,
And make this house your home;
Descend with all your gracious powers;
O come, great Spirit, come!

Come as the light: to us reveal
Our emptiness and woe;
And lead us in those paths of life
Where all the righteous go.

Come as the fire, and purge our hearts
Like sacrificial flame;
Let our whole soul an offering be
To our Redeemer's name.

Come as the Dove, and spread your wings,
The wings of perfect love;
And let your church on earth become
Blest as the church above.

*Andrew Reed (1787-1862)
CP 195
TUNE: Stracathro*

Offertory Hymn

My song is love unknown,
My Saviour's love to me,
Love to the loveless shown,
That they might lovely be.
O who am I
That for my sake
My Lord should take
Frail flesh, and die?

He came from his blest throne
Salvation to bestow:
But all made strange, and none
The longed-for Christ would know.
But O my friend!
My friend indeed,
Who at my need
His life did spend.

In life, no house, no home
My Lord on earth might have;
In death, no friendly tomb
But what a stranger gave.
What may I say?
Heaven was his home;
But mine the tomb
Wherein he lay.

Here might I stay and sing,
No story so divine;
Never was love, dear King,
Never was grief like thine.
This is my friend,
In whose sweet praise
I all my days
Could gladly spend.

Final Hymn

Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us
O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us,
For we have no help but thee;
Yet possessing every blessing
If our God our Father be.

Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us;
All our weakness you dost know;
You did tread this earth before us,
You did feel its keenest woe:
Lone and dreary, faint and weary,
Through the desert you did go.

Spirit of our God, descending,
Fill our hearts with heavenly joy,
Love with every passion blending,
Pleasure that can never cloy:
Thus provided, pardoned, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy.
