Luke 23. 1-49

Mary, the sister of Martha, has a very rough deal in today's gospel. She tries her hardest to do a beautiful passionate thing out of her love for Jesus and gets howled down for it. Often when we try our best we can end up disheartened and upset when others react negatively, misunderstanding our good intentions or the place where we fit in. We should take some heart from this story, because it shows that the beautiful things we do out of love for God are not forgotten, they have the highest and most important place. If Mary got to anoint the Lord for his burial, the works of love we offer are just as important.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
13th March 2016

Opening Hymn

Here, gracious Lord, we see you face to face;
Here would we touch and handle things unseen,
Here grasp with firmer hand th'eternal grace,
And for sustaining strength upon you lean.

Here would we feed upon the bread of God,
Here drink with you the royal wine of heaven;
Here would we lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.

*Horatius Bonar (1808-1889) alt.
TIS 516
TUNE: Song 24*

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
13th March 2016

Gradual Hymn:

We sing the praise of him who died.
Of him who died upon the cross;
The sinners' hope let all deride:
For this we count the world but loss.

The cross – it takes our guilt away,
It holds the fainting spirit up,
It cheers with hope the gloomy day
And sweetens every bitter cup.

It makes the coward spirit brave
And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
It takes all terror from the grave
And gilds the bed of death with light.

The balm of life, the cure of woe,
The measure and the pledge of love,
The sinners' refuge here below,
The angels' theme in heaven above.

*Thomas Kelly (1769-1855) alt.
TIS 5347
TUNE: Bow Brickhill*

Offertory Hymn:

Praise to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise:
In all his words most wonderful,
Most sure in all his ways.

O loving wisdom of our God,
When all was sin and shame,
A second Adam to the fight
And to the rescue came.

O wisest love, that flesh and blood,
Which did in Adam fail,
Should strive afresh against the foe,
Should strive and should prevail;

O generous love, that he who smote
In Man for man the foe,
The double agony in Man
For man should undergo,

And in the garden secretly,
And on the cross on high,
Should teach his friends, and thus inspire
To suffer and to die.

Praise to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise:
In all his words most wonderful,
Most sure in all his ways.

*John Henry Newman (1801-1890) alt.
TIS 141
TUNE: Gerontius*

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
13th March 2016

Final Hymn

Refrain:

*Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim
Till all the world adore his sacred name.*

Come, people, follow where our captain trod,
Our King victorious, Christ the Son of God;

Refrain

All newborn soldiers of the Crucified
Bear on their brows the seal of him who died:

Refrain

From farthest regions let them homage bring,
And on the cross adore their Saviour King:
