TODAY'S READINGS

Twenty Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

Isaiah 65. 17-25
A Song of Isaiah
2 Thessalonians 3. 6-13
Luke 21. 5-19

NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS

Christ the King
Jeremiah 23. 1-6
Song of Zechariah
Colossians 1. 11-20
Luke 23. 33-43

It is easy to be confused and overwhelmed by a world which seems out of control. But the future of all things is not in our hands, but in God's. Isaiah reminded Israel and he reminds us that the LORD will create a new heavens and a new earth, the past will be forgotten, there will be great rejoicing and the sound of weeping and crying shall be no more. There will be life as it is truly meant to be. Come Lord Jesus, come and renew all things.

CATHEDRAL MISSION STATEMENT

As the mother church of the Diocese and Cathedral of Goulburn, St.Saviour's is a haven for nurturing Christians and fostering new faith in Christ. In the love of Christ and the grace of the Holy Spirit, the Cathedral community is committed to reinforcing the wisdom of our Anglican tradition and engaging with an ever changing world. In particular, we are committed to:

- Prayerful and joyous worship
- The ministry of hospitality
- Serving the broader community
- Supporting those from diverse background including those with special needs.
- Supporting Goulburn and the Diocese in good times and in bad.

The Journey

Making Disciples

It is time again for the Cathedral parish to begin gathering people for The Journey. The Journey is based on the Catechumenate, the method used in the early church to form disciples. The aim is to move people on The Journey through questions like:
Who is Jesus anyway?;
What is the church about?
To: How can I serve?;
What ministry can I offer?

The Journey is a process, not a program. It begins with the needs of the candidates and brings Christ to them, where they are. People enter the journey to faith from many entry points. Some are: life changes - such as moving house; changing jobs; crises and tragedies; life questions such as why am I here, what am I meant to do with my life; rites of passage - baptism of a child, confirmation, marriage and sometimes - curiosity. In The Journey, they ask their questions and they are answered in the context of our faith and life in Christ.

The Journey is a way to form disciples, who become genuinely committed to Christ and his community and renew the parish life along the way. It is about coming to faith, or returning to faith, in the context of the average parish community, and living out faith there.

Who will you invite?

Dean Phillip

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
13th November 2016

Opening Hymn

Christ, whose glory fills the skies,
Christ the true, the only light,
Sun of righteousness, arise,
Triumph over shades of night;
Dayspring from on high, be near;
Day-star, in my heart appear.

Dark and cheerless is the morn
If you seem not close to me;
Joyless is the day's return,
Till your mercy's beams I see,
Till they inward light impart,
Glad my eyes, and warm my heart.

Visit then this soul of mine;
Pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
Fill me, radiance divine;
Scatter all my unbelief;
More and more yourself display,
Shining to the perfect day.

*Charles Wesley (1707-1788) alt.

QUIET CORNER

*A quiet Reading Corner has been established in Soldiers chapel for visitors to sit in a comfortable chair and read.
A Bible has been provided.*

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
13th November 2016

Gradual Hymn

Jesus, united by your grace
And each to each endeared,
With confidence we seek your face,
And know our prayer is heard.

Help us to help each other, Lord,
Each other's cross to bear,
Let each his friendly aid afford
And feel his brother's care.

Touched by the lodestone of your love,
Let all our hearts agree,
And ever toward each other move,
And ever move toward thee.

Up into you, our living Head,
Let us in all things grow,
And by your sacrifice be led
The fruits of love to show.

This is the bond of perfectness,
Your spotless charity;
O let us, still we pray, possess
The mind that was in thee.

*Charles Wesley (1707-1788) alt.

TUNE: Dunfermline*

Offertory Hymn

Immortal Love for ever full,
For ever flowing free,
For ever shared, for ever whole,
A never-ebbing sea.

Our outward lips confess the name
All other names above;
Love only knoweth whence it came
And comprehendeth love.

We may not climb the heavenly steeps
To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For him no depths can drown:

But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is he;
And faith has still its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.

The healing of his seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;
We touch him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.

Alone, O Love ineffable,
Thy saving name is given;
To turn aside from thee is hell,
To walk with thee is heaven.

*John Greenleaf Whittier (1807-1892)
CP 475
TUNE: Stracathro*

Final Hymn

Strengthen for service, Lord, the hands
That holy things have taken,
Let ears that now have heard your songs
To clamour never waken.

Lord, may the tongues which "Holy" sang
Keep free from all deceiving,
The eyes which saw your love be bright,
Your blessed hope perceiving.

The feet that tread your holy courts
From your light do not banish,
The bodies by your body fed
With your new life replenish.

WEDNESDAY EUCHARIST WITH PRAYERS FOR HEALING

Dean Phillip has relocated the Name Book and table to a new position in front of the organ pipes near the Lady Chapel. Please look for it and if you would like to include the name of someone requesting prayers, please add their name to the list.

We extend a welcome to any visitors here this morning.

We hope you enjoy warm fellowship and are inspired by our worship.

FOR YOUR SAFETY:

As you leave your seat, please be mindful of a STEP DOWN to the aisle.
