Ps 91. 1-6, 14-16
1 Timothy 6. 6-19
Luke 16. 19-31

NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS
Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost
Lamentations 1. 1-6
Ps 137
2 Timothy 1. 1-14
Luke 17. 5-10

‘... a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day.’ Immediately there is conjured up in the mind – great wealth, luxury, a beautiful mansion, glorious food, and much more. Then there is the picture of a homeless, bare-footed, shabbily dressed, probably unwashed man, called Lazarus. He has a name – he is a person – a human being. The rich man is nameless – he is ‘everyman’. This is a memorable parable. Jesus is teaching his disciples and he does it with memorable stories. Jesus’ stories are for his disciples in every age and place. They are for us in Australia today. We can reflect: who are the nameless rich – people – countries – churches, and who are those whose names we do not ask to know. What are we to understand from Jesus’ teaching? – Our actions have everlasting consequences. Paul when writing to Timothy said: ‘There is great gain in godliness combined with contentment.’ ‘But those who want to be rich fall into temptation.’

The Very Rev'd Anne Wenzel,

Dean of Bathurst will be taking up the position of Subdean of St Saviour's Cathedral, part time.

Anne is looking forward to joining our team ministry here at St Saviours' Cathedral.

She comes with a great deal of experience of Cathedral and parish life having begun her ministry training in Melbourne at Trinity College Theological School. Her first appointment as a priest was Precentor at St Paul's Cathedral Melbourne.

After seven years and having spent ten years in Melbourne she sought a ministry closer to family members near Sydney and went to Mudgee as Rector and Regional Ministry Co-ordinator (Archdeacon) within the Bathurst Diocese.

In 2010 she accepted an appointment as Dean of Bathurst and Rector of All Saints' Cathedral where she has spent the last six years.

Anne will be finishing in Bathurst on 25th September and will begin preparation to move to her new Goulburn home.

If you are a visitor to Goulburn and the Cathedral today welcome. We hope you enjoy warm fellowship and are inspired by our worship.

FOR YOUR SAFETY: As you leave your seat be mindful of a STEP DOWN to the aisle.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
September 25th 2016

Opening Hymn

The Lord is King, lift up your voice,
O earth, and, all you heavens, rejoice;
From world to world the joy shall ring,
"The Lord omnipotent is King!"

The Lord is King: who then shall dare
Resist his will, distrust his care,
Or murmur at his wise decrees,
Or doubt his royal promises?

He reigns: you saints, exalt your strains;
Your God is King, your Father reigns;
And he is at the Father's side,
The Man of love, the crucified.

One Lord, one empire, all secures;
He reigns, and life and death are yours:
Through earth and heaven one song shall ring,
"The Lord omnipotent is King!"

New Canon in Residence.

I have decided to appoint the Rev'd Catherine Eaton as a Canon in Residence of St Saviour's Cathedral. Canon Catherine has assisted us greatly in working as priest assistant in the months since Rev'd Theresa Angert Quilter left. Her devotion to our cathedral and its ministry is very encouraging.

Canon Catherine wishes to continue as an honorary priest assistant at the Cathedral, so you will be continuing to see her preaching and assisting on Sunday and during the week.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
September 25th 2016

Gradual Hymn

Father of mercies, in your word
What endless glory shines!
For ever be your name adored
For these celestial lines.

Here may the blind and hungry come,
And light and food receive;
Here shall the lowliest guest have room,
And taste and see and live.

Here springs of consolation rise
To cheer the fainting mind,
And thirsting souls receive supplies,
And sweet refreshment find.

Here the Redeemer's welcome voice
Spreads heavenly peace around,
And life and everlasting joys
Attend the blissful sound.

Divine instructor, gracious Lord,
Be you for ever near;
Teach me to love your sacred word,
And view my Saviour here.

Anna Steele (n.d.)

Offertory Hymn

Just as I am, without one plea
But that your blood was shed for me,
And that you would my Saviour be,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind –
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yes, all I need, in you to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, you will receive,
Will welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because your promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am – your love unknown
Has broken every barrier down
Now to be yours, and yours alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, of that free love
The breadth, length, depth and height
to prove,
Here for a season, then above,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Final Hymn

You holy angels bright,
Who wait at God's right hand,
Or through the realms of light
Fly at your Lord's command,
Assist our song, or else the theme
Too high will seem for mortal tongue.

You saints who toil below,
Adore your heavenly King,
And onward as you go
Some joyful anthem sing;
Take what he gives and praise him still
Through good and ill, who ever lives.

All nations of the earth,
Extol the world's great King:
With melody and mirth
God's glorious praises sing.
In him rejoice, and there proclaim
His holy name with sounding voice.
