As Jesus moves further afield, his teachings, yet again, come under the scrutiny of those preoccupied with legalisms. Seeking to drive a wedge between his teachings and those of the Jewish Torah and of the state, they test him. In his retort, Jesus affirms the equality of women and men and the sanctity of their union as grounded in creation. Legalisms can be restrictive and lead to exclusion whereas the love of God transcends human boundaries. Jesus drives home the point by rebuking his disciples for their exclusion of the little children and his welcoming of them with open arms.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
7 October 2018

Opening Hymn

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun does its successive journeys run;
his kingdom stretch from shore to shore, till moons shall wax and wane no more.

For him shall endless prayer be made,
and praises throng to crown his head;
his name like sweet perfume shall rise with every morning sacrifice;

people and realms of every tongue dwell on his love with sweetest song;
and infant voices shall proclaim their early blessings on his name.

Let every creature rise and bring the highest honours to our King, angels descend with songs again,
and earth repeat the long amen.

Isaac Watts 1674-1748 alt.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
7 October 2018

Gradual Hymn

The head that once was crowned with
 thorns
is crowned with glory now;
a royal diadem adorns
the mighty victor's brow.

the joy of all who dwell above,
the joy of all below,
to whom he manifests his love and grants his name to know.

To them the cross, with all its
shame,
with all its grace, is given,
their name an everlasting name,
their joy the joy of heaven.

The cross he bore is life and health, though shame and death to him;
his people's hope, his people's
wealth,
their everlasting theme.

Thomas Kelly 1769-1855
TIS378

Offertory Hymn

Crown him with many crowns,
the Lamb upon the throne;
hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
all music but its own:
awake, my soul, and sing
of him who died for me,
and hail him as your chosen king
through all eternity.

Crown him the Son of God
before the worlds began:
and we who tread where he has trod
crown him the Son of Man, who every grief has known that wrings the human breast,
and takes and bears them for his own,
that all in him may rest.

Crown him the Lord of love;
behold his hands and side,
those wounds yet visible above
in beauty glorified:
no angel there on high
can fully bear that sight,
but downwards bends a burning eye at mysteries so bright.

Crown him the Lord of life,
who triumphed o'er the grave,
and rose victorious in the strife for those he came to save:
his glories now we sing
who died, and rose on high;
who died eternal life to bring,
and lives that death may die.

Matthew Bridges 1800-94 and Godfrey Thring 1823-

Final Hymn

Christ is the world's true light,
its captain of salvation,
the day-star clear and bright,
desire of every nation;
new life, new hope awakes
for all who own his sway:
freedom her bondage breaks,
and night is turned to day.

In Christ all races meet, their ancient feuds forgetting,
the whole round world complete,
from sunrise to its setting:
when Christ is throned as Lord all shall forsake their fear,
to ploughshare beat the sword,
to pruning-hook the spear.

One Lord, in one great name unite us all who own you;
cast out our pride and shame
that hinder to enthrone you;
the world has waited long,
has travailed long in pain;
to heal its ancient wrong,
come, Prince of Peace, and reign.
