St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
23 February 2020

Opening Hymn

We praise, we worship you, O God,
your sovereign power we sound abroad;
all nations bow before your throne,
and you the Lord eternal own.

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
the God of hosts, by all adored, through heaven and earth your creatures see
the glory of your majesty.

Apostles join the glorious throng
and swell the loud triumphant song;
enraptured prophets hear the sound
and spread the hallelujahs round.

Victorious martyrs join their praise
and shout the omnipotence of grace, while all the church throughout the earth acknowledge and extol your worth.

Glory to you, O God most high!
Father, we praise your majesty:
the Son, the Spirit we adore Creator, Saviour, Comforter. Amen.

*From an ancient Christian hymn ?4th cent.
tr. Anon. in Philip Gell's A Church Hymn Book 1815 alt.*

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
23 February 2020

Gradual Hymn

Now we come, our heavenly Father,
one in glad community,
needing still your guiding mercies,
stronger faith, more fervent plea;
all your blessing now confessing,
we would praise you trustingly.

Through the years your Spirit guided those who blazed the path we tread,
in the glow of faith they laboured,
by the Bread of Life were fed;
while their yearning hearts were learning
more of Christ, their living head.

Proudly high they held his gospel,
far surpassing human creeds, striving for his church united
in the things for which he pleads:
torn no longer,
but made stronger,
one church meeting all our needs.

Lift we, then, their torch with gladness, pledging all to this high aim:
your lost world reclaimed from darkness,
yielded to your sovereign claim;
visions firing,
hearts inspiring,
march we onward in your name!

Offertory Hymn

My song is love unknown,
my Saviour's love to me,
love to the loveless shown,
that they might lovely be.
O who am I
that for my sake
my Lord should take
frail flesh and die?

He came from his blest throne
salvation to bestow:
but all made strange, and none
the longed-for Christ would know.
But O my friend!
my friend indeed,
who at my need
his life did spend.

In life, no house, no home
my Lord on earth might have;
in death, no friendly tomb
but what a stranger gave.
What may I say?
Heaven was his home;
but mine the tomb
wherein he lay.

Here might I stay and sing,
no story so divine;
never was love, dear King,
never was grief like thine.

This is my friend,
in whose sweet praise
I all my days
could gladly spend.

*Samuel Crossman 1624-84 alt
TIS341*

'This is my will, my one command,
that love should dwell among you all.
This is my will, that you should love
as I have shown that I love you.

No greater love can be but this:
to choose to die to save one's friends.
You are my friends if you obey
what I command that you should do.

I call you now no longer slaves;
no slave knows all his master does.
I call you friends, for all I hear my Father say you hear from me.

You chose not me, but I chose you,
that you should go and bear much fruit.
I chose you out that you in me should bear much fruit that will abide.

All that you ask my Father dear for my name's sake you shall receive.
This is my will, my one command,
that love should dwell in each, in all.' Amen
