Philippians 3. 13-21
John 15. 9-17

NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS
Last Sunday after Epiphany
Exodus 34. 29-35
Ps 99
2 Corinthians 3. 12-4. 2
Luke 9. 28-38 (37-43)

Sometimes we spend our whole lives waiting for our time to shine and be noticed. This desire to be noticed and appreciated often manifests itself in church politics where people might strive for the attention of those in leadership, or grasp at leadership themselves. As an apostle, St Matthias doesn't really get much of a word in in the Bible after the scene we read from Acts and doesn't appear all that much before and all we know about him just comes from this scene. St Matthias is a brilliant example to us as we remember that our faith is right. It is not us who choose, who make ourselves, who shine, but God who chooses us and shines through us.

A Prayer for St George's Cathedral, our sister church in Jerusalem

Our God, as you nurture the Body of Christ in different places, we ask your blessing for our sister church, St George's. In difficult times, may your Spirit sustain, guide and protect your people there. Bring joy to them as they witness to your presence.

In Jesus' name, Amen

Opening Hymn

We praise, we worship you, O God,
your sovereign power we sound abroad;
all nations bow before your throne,
and you the Lord eternal own.

O holy, holy, holy Lord,
the God of hosts, by all adored, through heaven and earth your creatures see the glory of your majesty.

Apostles join the glorious throng
and swell the loud triumphant song; enraptured prophets hear the sound
and spread the hallelujahs round.

Victorious martyrs join their praise
and shout the omnipotence of grace, while all the church throughout the earth acknowledge and extol your worth.

Glory to you, O God most high!
Father, we praise your majesty:
the Son, the Spirit we adore Creator, Saviour, Comforter. Amen

tr. Anon. in Philip Gell's A Church Hymn Book 1815 alt.

Gradual Hymn

Now we come, our heavenly Father,
one in glad community,
needing still your guiding mercies,
stronger faith, more fervent plea;
all your blessing
now confessing,
we would praise you trustingly.

Through the years your Spirit guided those who blazed the path we tread,
in the glow of faith they laboured,
by the Bread of Life were fed;
while their yearning
hearts were learning
more of Christ, their living head.

Proudly high they held his gospel,
far surpassing human creeds, striving for his church united
in the things for which he pleads:
torn no longer
but made stronger,
one church meeting all our needs.

Lift we, then, their torch with gladness, pledging all to this high aim:
your lost world reclaimed from darkness,
yielded to your sovereign claim;
visions firing,
hearts inspiring,
march we onward in your name!

Offertory Hymn

My song is love unknown,
my Saviour's love to me,
love to the loveless shown,
that they might lovely be.
O who am I
that for my sake
my Lord should take
frail flesh and die?

He came from his blest throne
salvation to bestow:
but all made strange, and none
the longed-for Christ would know.
But O my friend!
my friend indeed,
who at my need
his life did spend.

In life, no house, no home
my Lord on earth might have;
in death, no friendly tomb
but what a stranger gave.
What may I say?
Heaven was his home;
but mine the tomb
wherein he lay.

Here might I stay and sing,
no story so divine;
never was love, dear King,
never was grief like thine.
This is my friend,
in whose sweet praise
I all my days
could gladly spend.

*Samuel Crossman 1624-84 alt
TIS341*

Final Hymn

'This is my will, my one command,
that love should dwell among you all.
This is my will, that you should love
as I have shown that I love you.

No greater love can be but this:
to choose to die to save one's friends.
You are my friends if you obey
what I command that you should do.

I call you now no longer slaves;
no slave knows all his master does.
I call you friends, for all I hear my father say you hear from me.

You chose not me, but I chose you,
that you should go and bear much fruit.
I chose you out that you in me should bear much fruit that will abide.

All that you ask my Father dear for my name's sake you shall receive.
This is my will, my one command,
that love should dwell in each, in all.' Amen.
