Today we welcome back our choir

Sometimes, when we are confronted with the raw power of God's majesty and are aware of his presence, our own feelings of inadequacy and sin can get in the way of our closeness to him. Sin is most definitely the one impediment for being close to God, but we ought always to remember that there isn't a moment in this life where God will deny someone who turns to him. We know very well how God used and changed St Peter's human frailty to recreate him into a glorious man of God and example to all God's people. We ought to have the faith to turn away from our sins and face God that he might do the same with us! Pray that we might unveil our hearts to God further and allow him to move and change us more deeply.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
7th February 2016

Opening Hymn

God we praise you, God, we bless you,
God, we name you sovereign Lord!
Mighty King whom angels worship,
Father, by your church adored:
All creation shows your glory,
Heaven and earth draw near your throne,
Singing, "Holy, holy, holy,
Lord of hosts, and God alone!"

True apostles, faithful prophets,
Saints who set their world ablaze,
Martyrs, once unknown, unheeded,
Join one growing song of praise,
While your church on earth confesses
One majestic Trinity:
Father, Son, the Holy Spirit,
God our hope eternally.

Christ, at God's right hand victorious,
You will judge the world you made;
Lord in mercy help your servants
For whose freedom you have paid:
Raise us up from dust to glory,
Guard us from all sin today;
King enthroned above all praises,
Save your people, God, we pray.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
7th February 2016

Gradual Hymn:

You holy angels bright,
Who wait at God's right hand,
Or through the realms of light
Fly at your Lord's command,
Assist our song, or else the theme
Too high will seem for mortal tongue.

You blessed souls at rest,
Who ran this earthly race,
And now, from sin released,
Behold the Saviour's face,
His praises sound, as in his sight
You now delight to see him crowned.

You saints who toil below,
Adore your heavenly King,
And onward as you go
Some joyful anthem sing;
Take what he gives and praise him still
Through good and ill, who ever lives.

*Richard Baxter (1615-1691) and John
Hamden Gurney (1802-1862) alt.
TIS 108
TUNE: Darwall's 148th*

Offertory Hymn:

Dear Father, Lord of humankind,
Forgive our foolish ways;
Reclothe us in our rightful mind:
In purer lives thy service find,
In deeper reverence, praise,
In deeper reverence, praise.

In simple trust like theirs who heard,
Beside the Syrian sea,
The gracious calling of the Lord,
Let us, like them, without a word
Rise up and follow thee,
Rise up and follow thee.

O sabbath rest by Galilee!
O calm of hills above,
Where Jesus knelt to share with thee
The silence of eternity,
Interpreted by love,
Interpreted by love!

Drop thy still dews of quietness,
Till all our strivings cease;
Take from our souls the strain and stress,
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of thy peace,
The beauty of thy peace.

Breathe through the heats of our desire
Thy coolness and thy balm;
Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
Speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
O still small voice of calm,
O still small voice of calm.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns

Final Hymn

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessèd, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, your great name we praise.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light,
Your angels adore you, all veiling their sight;
Of all your rich graces this grace, Lord, impart—
Take the veil from our faces, the veil from our heart.

All praise we would render: reveal to our sight
What hides you is only the splendour of light;
And so let your glory, Almighty, impart,
Through Christ in the story, your Christ to the heart.
