Ps 36. 5-10
1 Corinthians 12. 1-11
John 2. 1-11

In Baptism, Christ knits us all together into his body and in doing that we become a part of him here on earth. The Christian life is one in which we are called to follow Christ in everything that we do, and it's our belief that in us God will recognise Christ. When the Holy Spirit descends upon Jesus in his baptism by John the Baptist, the voice comes from heaven saying, 'You are my son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased'. In our baptisms as well as in our lives we can expect that God says much the same, that we are his beloved children and with us he is pleased.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
13 January 2019

Opening Hymn

The great forerunner of the morn,
the herald of the Word, is born;
and faithful hearts shall never fail
with thanks and praise his light to hail.

With heavenly messenger Gabriel came,
that John should be that herald's name,
and with prophetic utterance told his actions great and manifold.

His mighty deeds exalt his fame
to greater than a prophet's name.
Of woman-born shall never be a greater prophet than was he.

To God the father, God the Son,
and God the Spirit, Three in One, praise, honour, might and glory be
from age to age eternally.

*The Venerable Bede 673-735
Ts JM Neale* 1818-1866
CP235 tune 34*

Gradual Hymn

Christ, when for us you were baptized
God's Spirit on you came,
as peaceful as a dove, and yet
as urgent as a flame.

God called you his beloved Son,
called you his servant too;
his kingdom you were called to preach,
his holy will to do.

Straightway and steadfast until death
you then obeyed his call,
freely as Son of Man to serve,
and give your life for all.

Baptize us with your Spirit, Lord,
your cross on us be signed,
that likewise to God's service, we may perfect freedom find.

*F Bland Tucker 1895-1984
CP92 tune 195*

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
13 January 2019

Offertory Hymn

O love how deep, how broad, how high!
it fills the heart with ecstasy that God, the Son of God, should take our mortal form for mortals' sake.

He sent no angel to our race
of higher or of lower place
but wore the robe of human frame himself, and to this lost world came.

For us he was baptized, and bore
his holy fast, and hungered sore;
for us temptations sharp he knew;
for us the tempter overthrew.

For us to wicked hands betrayed,
scourged, mocked, in purple robe arrayed,
he bore the shameful cross and death;
for us at length gave up his breath.

For us he rose from death again,
for us he went on high to reign,
for us he sent his Spirit here
to guide, to strengthen and to cheer.

To him whose boundless love has won salvation for us through his Son, to God the Father, glory be both now and through eternity.

tr. Benjamin Webb 1819-85 alt.

Final Hymn

Spirit divine, attend our prayers
and make this house your home,
descend with all your gracious powers:
O come, great Spirit, come.

Come as the fire: and purge our hearts
like sacrificial flame;
let our whole soul an offering be
to our Redeemer's name.

Come as the dove: and spread your wings,
the wings of peaceful love,
and let your Church on earth become blest as the Church above.

Come as the wind, with rushing sound
and Pentecostal grace,
that all of woman born may see
the glory of your face.

Spirit divine, attend our prayers
and make this house your home,
descend with all your gracious powers:
O come, great Spirit, come.
