Happy New Year from the Dean

Once again, Christmas has been a very busy and fruitful time in the Cathedral and now we turn our minds to 2018.

A cathedral is always a place of great challenges and great blessings.

This year as we move forward we need to constantly address our stewardship of this great place and its ongoing ministry.

In the last year there have been some real, practical improvements in the fabric of the cathedral, with a marked decrease in rising damp.

This year we will be concentrating on renewing the pointy bits on the roof (called finials) so that they can last another 150 years.

I'm also hoping for more engagement with our Goulburn community. Please make this a goal for yourself as part of our Cathedral community and keep my role as Dean in your prayers, along with other members of our ministry team.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
7th January 2018

Opening Hymn

As with gladness men of old did the guiding star behold, as with joy they hailed its light, leading onward, beaming bright:
so, most gracious Lord, may we evermore your glory see.

As with joyful steps they sped,
Saviour, to your lowly bed, there to bend the knee before one whom heaven and earth adore:
so may we with willing feet ever seek your mercy seat.

As they offered gifts most rare at your cradle rough and bare:
so may we with holy joy,
pure, and free from sin's alloy, all our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to you, our heavenly King.

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
7th January 2018

Gradual Hymn

Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness,
bow down before him, his glory proclaim;
gold of obedience and incense of lowliness
bring, and adore him: the Lord is his name.

Low at his feet lay your burden of carefulness, high on his heart he will bear it for you, comfort your sorrows, and answer your prayerfulness,
guiding your steps in the way best for you.

Fear not to enter his courts in the slenderness of the poor wealth you would reckon to own:
truth in its beauty and love in its tenderness, these are the offerings to bring to his throne.

Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness,
bow down before him, his glory proclaim;
gold of obedience and incense of lowliness
bring, and adore him: the Lord is his name.

*John Samuel Bewley Monsell 1811-75 alt.

Offertory Hymn

From the eastern mountains pressing on they come,
wise men in their wisdom
to his humble home;
stirred by deep devotion,
hasting from afar,
ever journeying onward,
guided by a star.

There their Lord and Saviour meek and lowly lay,
wondrous light that led them
onward on their way,
ever now to lighten
nations from afar,
as they journey homeward
by that guiding star.

Thou who in a manger
once hast lowly lain,
who dost now in glory
o'er all kingdoms reign,
gather in the peoples,
who in lands afar
ne'er have seen the brightness
of thy guiding star.

Gather in the outcasts,
all who've gone astray;
throw thy radiance o'er them,
guide them on their way:
those who never knew thee,
those who've wandered far,
guide them by the brightness
of thy guiding star.

Until every nation,
whether bond or free,
'neath thy star-lit banner,
Jesu, follow thee
o'er the distant mountains
to that heavenly home,

Final Hymn

Brightest and best of the stars of the morning,
dawn on our darkness and lend us your aid:
star of the east, the horizon adorning,
guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on his cradle the dewdrops are shining, low lies his head with the beasts of the stall;
angels adore him in slumber reclining, Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion, odours of Edom and offerings divine?
gems of the mountain and pearls of the ocean, myrrh from the forest or gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation, vainly with gifts would his favour secure:
richer by far is the heart's adoration, dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

Brightest and best of the stars of the morning,
dawn on our darkness and lend us your aid:
star of the east, the horizon adorning,
guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

*Reginald Heber 1783-1826 alt.
TIS310(1)*

Psalm 72. 1-7, 10-14

Give the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to a king's son.
May he judge your people with righteousness,
and your poor with justice.
May the mountains yield prosperity for the people, and the hills, in righteousness.
May he defend the cause of the poor of the people,
give deliverance to the needy,
and crush the oppressor.

May he live while the sun endures,
and as long as the moon, throughout all generations.
May he be like rain that falls on the mown grass, like showers that water the earth.
In his days may righteousness flourish and peace abound, until the moon is no more.

May the kings of Tarshish and of the isles render him tribute,
may the kings of Sheba and Seba
bring gifts.
May all kings fall down before him,
all nations give him service.

For he delivers the needy when they call,
the poor and those who have no helper.
He has pity on the weak and the needy,
and saves the lives of the needy.
From oppression and violence he redeems their life;
and precious is their blood in his sight.
