LENTEN REFLECTION
from Dean Phillip

Trying to interpret the times theologically can often be off the mark. Prior to this incident and parable - just a few verses earlier - Jesus spoke to crowds following him, telling them that they are good about interpreting the weather, and then asked them, "Why do you not know how to interpret the present time?" (Luke 12:56)

Some in the crowd quickly rose to the occasion, stating a case of unjust suffering with the implication that Jesus should interpret its meaning.

They told him about some Galileans that Pontius Pilate had murdered in a ghastly event. Did those Galileans deserve it?

Those who raise the implied question can hardly be faulted. The assumption is that there is a reason for human suffering.

Opening Hymn

Fill my whole life, O Lord my God,
in every part with praise,
that my whole being may proclaim your being and your ways.

Fill every part of me with praise:
let all my being speak
of you and of your love, O Lord, poor though I be and weak.

So shall you, Lord, receive from me
the praise and glory due;
and so shall I begin on earth
the song for ever new.

So shall no part of day and night
from sacredness be free;
but with you, Lord, in every step my fellowship will be.

*Horatius Bonar 1808-89 alt.
TIS596*

follows from front page.....Dean Phillip's Lenten Reflection

The assumption is that we live in a universe of rewards and punishments.
That way of thinking is reflected within the Bible itself. Especially in the speeches of Job's friends.

At the end of the book of Job they turn out to be quite wrong.
The implied question is met head-on by Jesus. He declares that the Galileans who suffered were no worse sinners than anyone else.
He adds to their illustration one of his own.

He refers to an accident in Jerusalem. Eighteen persons died when a tower fell on them.
Those persons were no worse than anyone else.

The implication to be drawn from the parable of the fig tree is that God is patient, which gives Jesus' hearers time for repentance.

Gradual Hymn

Fight the good fight with all thy might,
Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right;
lay hold on life, and it shall be thy joy and crown eternally.

Run the straight race through God's good grace, lift up thine eyes, and seek his face;
life with its way before us lies;
Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.

Cast care aside; and on thy Guide lean, and his mercy will provide, lean, and the trusting soul shall prove Christ is its life, and Christ its love.

Faint not, nor fear; his arm is near;
he changes not, and thou art dear;
only believe, and thou shalt see that Christ is all in all to thee.

*John Samuel Bewley Monsell 1811-75
TIS594*

Offertory Hymn

The God of Abraham praise
who reigns enthroned above, ancient of everlasting days,
and God of love:
the Lord, the great I AM
by earth and heaven confessed!
We bow and bless the sacred name for ever blessed.

The God of Abraham praise,
whose all-sufficient grace shall guide us all our happy days
in all our ways.
He calls us each a friend,
he calls himself our God;
and he shall save us to the end
through Jesus' blood.

He by himself has sworn,
we on his oath depend:
we shall, on eagles' wings upborne,
to heaven ascend:
we shall behold his face,
we shall his power adore,
and sing the wonders of his grace
for evermore.

The whole triumphant host gives thanks to God on high:
'Hail, Father, Son and Spirit blest!' they ever cry.
Hail, Abraham's God and ours!
with heaven our songs we raise:
all might and majesty are yours,
and endless praise. Amen

Final Hymn

A new heart, Lord, create in me,
a heart from sin and guilt set free;
O close the gate and guard the door,
that sin may enter in no more.

To you my soul I open wide;
come, Jesus, and in me abide,
and from the temple of my heart
make all unrighteousness depart.

O let your Holy Spirit's light, with all your heavenly radiance bright,
flow through my spirit like a flood,
eternal source of every good.

Thus to my cleansed and contrite heart your heavenly riches, Lord, impart, so that your wisdom, truth, and grace may make my heart a fruitful place.

*Heinrich Georg Neuss 1654-1716
