Ps 23

Ephesians 5. 8-14
John 9. 1-41

In the gospel reading, the discourse between the Samaritan woman and Jesus shows us how the division between the Jews and the Samaritans was terminated (in v. 9b we read that the Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans). After the discussions and when the Samaritan woman discovered her definition from Jesus' standpoint, she turned an Evangelist and she went to her home city and invited all to 'come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?' (v. 29). We are being called to tell about Jesus and invite people in our places of work, in our homes and in the market to come and see the Messiah.

Welcome, Visitors!

We extend a welcome to any visitors here this morning.
We hope you enjoy warm fellowship and are inspired by our worship.

FOR YOUR SAFETY:

As you leave your seat, please be mindful of a STEP DOWN to the aisle.

From the Dean's Desk:

Dear Friends,

I advise the sad news that Canon Lyall Turley died on March 11th after a struggle. Fr Lyall was the much loved Vice-Dean of St Saviour's Cathedral between 1981-1985. Please pray for his wife Lauris and son Ben at this time. May he rest in peace and rise in glory.

Dean Phillip

I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit

TODAY we welcome baby:

Emelyn Grace McLaughlin and Ryan James GRANT being baptised this morning at 10am service.

We welcome the families and friends of Emelyn and Ryan here to witness and support their child being received into the family of God. Congratulations!

Father, hear the prayer we offer;
not for ease that prayer shall be,
but for strength that we may ever
live our lives courageously.

Not for ever in green pastures
do we ask our way to be;
but the steep and rugged pathway
may we tread rejoicingly.

Not for ever by still waters
would we idly rest and stay;
but would smite the living fountains
from the rocks along our way.

Be our strength in hours of weakness,
in our wanderings be our guide;
through endeavour, failure, danger,
Father, be thou at our side.

Love Maria Willis 1824-1908*

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
'Come unto me and rest;
lay down, O weary one, lay down
your head upon my breast.'
I came to Jesus as I was,
weary and worn and sad;
I found in him a resting-place,
and he has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
'Behold, I freely give
the living water' thirty one,
stoop down and drink and live.'
I came to Jesus, and I drank
of that life-giving steam;
my thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
and now I live in him.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
'I am this dark world's light;
look unto me, your morn shall rise.
and all your day be bright.'
I looked to Jesus, and I found
in him my star, my sun;
and in that light of life I'll walk
till travelling days are done.

Final Hymn

Glorious things of you are spoken,
Zion, city of our God:
he whose word cannot be broken
formed you for his own abode.
On the Rock of Ages founded,
what can shake your sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
you may smile at all your foes.

See, the steams of living waters,
springing from eternal love,
well supply your sons and daughters
and all fear of want remove:
who can faint while such a river
ever flows their thirst to assuage - grace, which like the Lord the giver
never fails from age to age?

Saviour, since of Zion's city
I, through grace, a member am,
let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in your name:
fading are the worldlings' pleasers,
all their boasted pomp and show;
solid joys and lasting treasures
none but Zion's children know.

PSALM 95

O come, let us sing out to the LORD:

let us shout in triumph to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his face with thanksgiving:

and cry out to him joyfully in psalms.

For the LORD is a great God:

and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are the depths of the earth:

and the peaks of the mountains are his also.

The sea is his, for he made it:

his hands moulded dry land.

Come, let us worship and bow down:

let kneel before the Lord our maker.

For he is the Lord our God:

we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Today if only you would hear his voice "Do not harden
your hearts as at Meribah:

as on the day at Massah in the wilderness;

'When your fathers tested me:

put me to proof, though they had seen my works.

'Forty years long I loathed that generation and said:

"It is a people who err in their hearts, for they do not know my ways";

'Of whom I swore in my wrath:

"They shall not enter my rest."
