Deuteronomy 32. 1-4
Ps 19. 1-6
Jude 1. 1-3, 17-25
Luke 6. 12-16

Jesus teaches the disciples a lesson through the question posed to him by Zebedee's sons. They want to be seated next to him when he comes into his glory. Jesus' response is that those seats are reserved 'for those for whom it has been prepared'. Greatness, he says, comes from service to others: 'Whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all'.

Our God, as you nurture the Body of Christ in different places, we ask your blessing for our sister church, St George's. In difficult times, may your Spirit sustain, guide and protect your people there. Bring joy to them as they witness to your presence.

In Jesus' name, Amen

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
21 October 2018

Gradual Hymn

With joy we meditate the grace of our High Priest above;
his heart is made of tenderness,
and ever yearns with love.

Touched with a sympathy within,
he knows our feeble frame;
he knows what sore temptations mean,
for he has felt the same.

He, in the days of feeble flesh,
poured out his cries and tears;
and in his measure feels afresh
what every member bears.

Then let our humble faith address
his mercy and his power;
we shall obtain delivering grace
in each distressing hour.

and of the Holy Spirit—*

St Saviour's Cathedral Hymns
21 October 2018

Offertory Hymn

O worship the King all-glorious above,
O gratefully sing his power and his love:
our shield and defender, the ancient of days,
pavilioned in splendour and girded with praise.

O tell of his might, O sing of his grace,
whose robe is the light, whose canopy space;
his chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
and dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

The earth with its store of wonders untold,
Almighty, your power has founded of old,
established it fast by a changeless decree,
and round it has cast, like a mantle, the sea.

Your bountiful care, what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
it streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
and sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.

O measureless might, ineffable love,
while angels delight to hymn you above,
the humbler creation, though faltering their praise,
with true adoration shall sing all their days.

*Robert Grant 1179-1838 alt based on Psalm 104 and Psalm 18

Final Hymn

Who would true valour see,
let them come hither;
those here will constant be,
come wind, come weather.
There's no discouragement shall make them once relent
each from a vowed intent
to be a pilgrim.

Those who beset them round
with dismal stories
cannot the brave confound:
their strength the more is.
No lion can them fright,
they'll with a giant fight,
but each will have a right
to be a pilgrim.

Hobgoblin nor foul fiend
can daunt their spirit:
they know they at the end
shall life inherit.
Then fancies fly away;
they'll scorn what people say,
and each work night and day
to be a pilgrim.

John Bunyan 1628-88 alt
