Help us, Lord, to bring love in your name to a world crying out for it in these unusual times.

A Prayer for St. George's Cathedral, our sister church in Jerusalem.

Our God, as you nurture the Body of Christ in different places, we ask your blessing on our sister church, St. George's Jerusalem. In difficult times, may your Spirit sustain, guide and protect your people there. Bring joy to them as they witness to your presence In Jesus' name, Amen.

TREASURER'S UPDATE...

Even while I am away, I am keeping you mindful of the importance of regular "giving" to our Parish. It is very pleasing that over the past month more of you have set up "giving" online banking method.

To those who have, thank you, this method of "giving" assists our bank balance tremendously.

Those who have requested their envelope be collected, this is also very welcome so thank you.

If we all just keep giving weekly, by whatever method you are comfortable with, this is all that is required.

Kerrie Knowlman is available to collect any envelopes from you. Just phone the office and leave your name and details. Be assured your giving will remain anonymous, as always.

I will be back in the office from July, covering my "normal" days of Monday and Thursday, until then, keep safe and warm.

SENTENCE OF THE DAY

Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for Jesus' sake will find it.

COLLECT

Gracious God,
we who were baptised into Christ Jesus
were baptised into his death:
we pray that, as you raised him from death,
so by the power of the Holy Spirit
we may live the new life to your glory, knowing ourselves to be dead in sin
but alive for you in Jesus Christ;
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

Reading from Genesis Chapter 21
beginning at 8th Verse

The child grew, and was weaned; and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, playing with her son Isaac. So she said to Abraham, 'Cast out this slave woman with her son; for the son of this slave woman shall not inherit along with my son Isaac.'

The matter was very distressing to Abraham on account of his son. But God said to Abraham, 'Do not be distressed because of the boy and because of your slave woman; whatever Sarah says to you, do as she tells you, for it is through Isaac that offspring shall be named after you. As for the son of the slave woman, I will make a nation of him also, because he is your offspring.' So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, along with the child, and sent her away. And she departed, and wandered about in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

When the water in the skin was gone, she cast the child under one of the bushes. Then she went and sat down opposite him a good way off, about the distance of a bowshot; for she said, 'Do not let me look on the death of the child.' And as she sat opposite him, she lifted up her voice and wept. And God heard the voice of the boy; and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, and said to her, 'What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid; for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. Come, lift up the boy and hold him fast with your hand, for I will make a great nation of him.' Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. She went, and filled the skin with water, and gave the boy a drink.

God was with the boy, and he grew up; he lived in the wilderness, and became an expert with the bow. He lived in the wilderness of Paran; and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

PSALM 86. 1-10, 16-17

Incline your ear to me, O god, and answer me:

for I am poor and in misery.

Preserve my life, for I am faithful:

my God, save your servant who trust in you.

Be merciful to me, O Lord:

for I call to you all the day long.

O make glad the soul of your servant:

for I put my hope in you, O Lord.

For you, Lord, are good and forgiving:

of great and continuing kindness

to all who call upon you.

Hear my prayer, O Lord:

and give heed to the voice of my supplication.

In the day of my trouble I call upon you:

for you will surely answer.

Among the gods there is none like you, O Lord:

nor are there any deeds like yours.

All the nations you have made shall come and worship before you:

O Lord, they shall glorify your name.

For you are great and do marvellous things:

and you alone are God.

Turn to me and be merciful,

give your strength to your servant:

and save the child of your handmaid.

Show me some token of your goodness:

that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed, because you, Lord, are my helper and my comforter.

SECOND READING

Reading from Romans Chapter 6 beginning at 1st Verse

What then are we to say? Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound?

By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.

We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.

We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him.

The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

FOR THE WORD OF THE LORD

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
GOSPEL READING

21 June 2020

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to MATTHEW Chapter 10 beginning at 24th Verse

GLORY TO YOU LORD JESUS CHRIST

‘A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household!

‘So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.

Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground unperceived by your Father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

‘Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven.

‘Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.
For I have come to set a man against his father,
and a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
and one’s foes will be members of one’s own household.
Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me;
and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.

PRAISE TO YOU LORD JESUS CHRIST

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

21 June 2020

INTERCESSIONS

Prepared by Nina Dougall

Loving and merciful God, you care for your people and all your children are precious in your sight: we pray for all the family of nations.

We pray for all whose lives are torn apart by disaster and war; those worn out by disease and famine.

We pray for peace and good will among nations, especially in the Middle East and for a just sharing of the earth’s resources, that we may live as brothers and sisters, children of the same God. Loving God, help us daily to grow into your likeness and, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Loving and merciful God, you offer your people redemption and fullness of life: we pray for your holy, catholic church, for all baptised into Christ.

We pray for the churches of Australia, for leaders, teachers and theologians, for the clergy and people of this parish.

We pray for charity and unity among all Christians, that together we may proclaim your gospel of love.

Loving God, help us daily to grow into your likeness, and, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Loving and merciful God, you are good and forgiving abounding in steadfast love for your people.

We pray for our families, our neighbours and our friends, for all whom we meet in our daily lives, for the hungry, the homeless and all without work.

We pray for a community that values and cares for all its members, that all may live in dignity and hope.

Loving God, help us daily to grow into your likeness, and, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Loving and merciful God, you are filled with compassion for your people and in our troubles you hear our cries:
 We pray for all who are lonely or sad, for those in grief or despair; for the sick and the dying and for all who care for them.
 We pray for courage in our own troubles and compassion and generosity, that we may respond to the needs of others.
 We pray for those living with fear and anxiety during this difficult time as our country deals with the corona virus.
 Loving God, help us daily to grow into your likeness, and, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Loving and merciful God, you deliver your people from death and promise us the joys of everlasting life; we pray for all who have died in your love. Help us to love you above all else, that, united with all your saints, we may be raised to a joyful resurrection and live with you for ever.
 Loving God, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Accept our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us to pray.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
 Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
 Give us today our daily bread.
 Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
 Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
 For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen

Cathedral Online:

Reminder: to access and view the services pre-recorded go to our website: www.goulburncathedral.org.au. Click on Cathedral Online and follow the prompts.

Stay safe, take care of yourself and stay home, then our community will be protected. Keep in touch with each other and hold each other in prayer.
 Now more restrictions have been lifted, I hope you may be enjoying coffee out with friends or a meal at your favourite eatery.
 It's great the beauticians are now back at work... manicures and pedicures can resume (my feet/hands are so much happier!)

Our SUNDAY Services are recorded in the Cathedral each Saturday for your viewing on Sunday.

Thanks to Barbara Griffin for her expertise and many hours editing and uploading.

Thank you to all choristers who participate.

The music really enhances the worship and the overall experience.
 Thank you to Dean Phillip & Cn Anne for their pastoral care of us all.

This beautiful "winter" weather can't last, the rains will come, so I hope you are taking the opportunity to sit out in the sun, potter in your gardens or read a favourite book. Is letter writing still an absorbing past-time or a forgotten art? We look forward to again worshipping together.
