Cathedral Mission Statement

As the mother church of the Canberra Goulburn Diocese and Cathedral of Goulburn, St Saviours seeks to be a haven for nurturing Christians and fostering new faith in Christ. In the love of Christ and the grace of the Holy Spirit the Cathedral community is committed to reinforcing the wisdom of the Anglican tradition and engaging with the ever changing world.

We Are Committed to :

Prayer and joyful worship

The ministry of hospitality

Serving the broader community

Supporting those from diverse backgrounds including those with special needs

Supporting Goulburn and the Diocese in good times and in times of adversity

Acknowledgement of Country

We acknowledge the triune God, the Creator of heaven and earth and His ownership of all things. (Psalm 24:1) We recognise that He gave stewardship of these lands upon which we meet to the First Nations Peoples of this country (Acts 17:26). We acknowledge the cultures of our First Nations Peoples and are thankful for the community that we share together now. We pay our respects to the people of this land and their elders/leaders, both past and present, and those emerging.

Introit Hymn

For all the saints who from their labours rest
who to the world their Lord by faith confessed, your name, O Jesus, be for ever blessed.

Alleluia. Alleluia

You were their rock, their fortress and their might,
you were their captain in the well fought fight,
in deepest darkness still their one true light.

Alleluia. Alleluia

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine,
all yours, all joined in unity divine.

Alleluia. Alleluia

But see, there breaks a yet more glorious day;
the saints triumphant rise in bright array;
the King of glory passes on his way.

Alleluia. Alleluia

From earth's wide bounds and ocean's farthest shore,
through heaven's gate the holy people pour;
the Three in One for ever they adore.

Alleluia. Alleluia

William Walsham How 1823-97 alt.

Sentence

Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, who do not lift up their souls to what is false; they will receive blessing from the Lord, and vindication from the God of their salvation.

Psalm 24.4, 5

Collect

Merciful God, righteous Judge of all, who sent Jesus among us to seek and to save those who are lost: grant that we may eagerly seek the Saviour, and joyfully welcome him into our homes and lives. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Daniel 7:1-3, 15-18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: 'As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever.'

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Psalm 149

O praise the Lord, and sing to the Lord a new song:

O praise him in the assembly of the faithful.

Let Israel rejoice in him that made him:

let the children of Zion be joyful in their king.

Let them praise him in the dance:

let them sing his praise with timbrel and with harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people:

he adorns the meek with his salvation.

Let his faithful ones exult in his glory:

let them sing for joy upon their beds.

Let the high praises of God be in their mouths:

and a two-edged sword in their hands,

To execute vengeance on the nations:

and chastisement upon the peoples,

To bind their kings in chains:

and their nobles with fetters of iron,

To visit upon them the judgement that is decreed:

such honour belongs to all his faithful servants.

Praise the Lord.

Ephesians 1:11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory. I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

For the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn

The church's one foundation
is Jesus Christ her Lord:
she is his new creation
by water and the word;
from heaven he came and sought her
to be his holy bride;
with his own blood he bought her,
and for her life he died.

Elect from every nation
yet one o'er all the earth,
her charter of salvation
one Lord, one faith, one birth:
one holy name she blesses,
partakes one holy food,
and to one hope she presses
with every grace endued.

Though with a scornful wonder
the world sees her oppressed,
by schisms rent asunder,
by heresies distressed,
yet saints their watch are keeping,
their cry goes up, 'How long?'
and soon the night of weeping shall be the morn of song.

Through toil and tribulation and tumult of her war
she waits the consummation
of peace for evermore, till with the vision glorious
her longing eyes are blessed,
and the great church victorious
shall be the church at rest.

Yet she on earth has union
with God the Three in One,
and mystic sweet communion
with those whose rest is won.
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give to us the grace
like them, the meek and lowly,
in heaven to seek your face.

Samuel John Stone

1839-1900 alt.

Luke 6:20-31

Then he looked up at his disciples and said:

‘Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

‘Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

‘Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

‘Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

‘But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

‘Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

‘Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

‘Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

‘But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Offertory Hymn

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart,
naught be all else to me, save that thou art;
thou my best thought__ by day and by night,
waking and sleeping, thy presence my light.

Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word,
I ever with thee, and thou with me, Lord;
thou my great Father, thy child let me be;
thou in me dwelling, and I one with thee.

Be thou my armour, my sword for the fight;
be thou my dignity, thou my delight;
thou my soul's shelter, and thou my strong tower:
raise thou me heavenward, O Power of my power.

Riches I scorn and the world's empty praise:
thou mine inheritance, now and always;
thou and thou only the first in my heart;
high King of heaven, my treasure thou art.

High King of heaven, after victory won,
may I reach heavens joys; O bright heaven's Sun!
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

Irish, 8th century, tr. Mary Byrne 1880-1931
versified: Eleanor Hull. 1860-1935

Final Hymn

Make me a channel of your peace.

Where there is hatred let me bring your love;
where there is injury, your pardon, Lord
and where there's doubt, true faith in you.

*O Master, grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved, as to love with all my soul.*

Make me a channel of your peace.

Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope;
where there is darkness, let me bring your light and where there's sadness, ever joy.

*O Master, grant that I may never seek
so much to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved, as to love with all my soul.*

Make me a channel of your peace.

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
in giving of ourselves that we receive,
and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

From the Dean's Desk:

All Saints' Day: A Cloud of Witnesses

Each year on All Saints' Day, the Church pauses to remember the countless faithful who have gone before us, named and unnamed, celebrated and over looked. From martyrs and mystics to neighbours and nurturers, we honour those whose lives bore witness to Christ's love in word and deed.

The feast dates back to the 4th century, when early Christians commemorated martyrs who had no specific feast day. By the 9th century, Pope Gregory IV extended the celebration to the whole Church, setting it on November 1st, a day to rejoice in the communion of saints, not just the canonised, but all who have lived lives of holiness.

This day reminds us that sainthood is not reserved for the extraordinary, but is woven through the ordinary: in acts of courage, compassion, and quiet faithfulness. We are part of a living tapestry, "a great cloud of witnesses" (Hebrews 12:1), whose stories continue to shape and inspire our own.

As we gather in worship, we do so with gratitude and hope, knowing that the saints surround us, encourage us, and call us deeper into the mystery of God's grace.

Our Cathedral Prayer

Almighty God whose hand has guided and sustained your Church through many generations, accept our prayers for this Cathedral church, bless all who serve within its walls and strengthen the hands of those who seek to ensure its future. Make it a constant witness to your glory and a place of peace and joy: for the sake of your Son our Saviour. Amen.

A Prayer for St. George's Cathedral,

Our God, as you nurture the Body of Christ in different places, we ask your blessing for our sister church, St. George's in East Jerusalem. In these difficult times, may your Spirit sustain, guide and protect your people there. Bring peace to all as they witness to your presence. In Jesus' name. Amen .

A Prayer for Ukraine

God of peace and justice, we pray for the people of Ukraine today. We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons. We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow, that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them. We pray for those with power over war or peace, for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions. Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them. We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Amen.
